CAPTURE OF COLOGNE MATTER OF HOURS

TANKS AND INFANTRY ROLL THROUGH INDUSTRIAL AREA IN ANCIENT RHINELAND BASTION

German Communique Says Lt. Gen. Patton's "Blacked Out" Third Army Has Achieved Deep Breach In Lines Guarding Middle Sector

AMERICAN FIRST IS SEVEN MILES FROM BONN

By JAMES M. LONG
Paris, March 6—(P)—Americans captured at least a third of Cologne by mid-morning today and forced the German defenders back into the old city section around the heart of the devastated metropolis. Three divisions—the Third Armored, Eighth and 104th Infantry—reached the Ringstrasse against surprisingly light opposition. The Germans fought in what once was the walled section of Cologne, by far the greatest traffic center in western Germany.

To the north, Lt. Gen. William H. Simpson's Ninth Army wiped out all but one small pocket on the Rhine south of the Duesseldorf suburb of Neuss and drove, with the Canadians, into the West pocket farther down the Rhine. Prime Minister Churchill told British troops on a visit to the northern front that "one strong heave will win the war."

R. A. F. BOMBS SALZBERGEN OIL REFINERY

British Follow Up 1,100 Plane Assault During Night On Chemnitz, Berlin and Other Cities

33 FAIL TO RETURN

London, March 6—(P)—RAF heavy bombers staged a high-concentration attack in daylight today on the Salzburg oil refinery 27 miles northwest of Muenster in a follow-up to their 1,100-bomber assault last night on Chemnitz, Berlin, and three other cities.

It was the 22nd consecutive day of Allied air blows. The night assault concentrated on Chemnitz, hit during Monday by 250 U. S. Flying Fortresses. Other formations hit synthetic oil plants at Bohlen near Leipzig, and targets at Mannheim and Gelsenkirchen while Mosquitos again again bombed Berlin. Thirty-three planes were missing from this night fleet, but some may have landed on continental bases.

The night raiders had dropped approximately 4,000 tons of high explosives on their three targets. Chemnitz is one of the main centers of the vast railway network spreading over Saxony and Allied air chiefs apparently are determined to deal it a knockout blow.

This is the same type of co-ordinated blow by which American (Turn to Page Seven)

Gains Scored By 5th Army in Italy

Rome, March 6—(P)—U. S. Fifth Army forces have captured the hamlet of Bisopra, 13 miles southwest of Bologna, after scoring advances of 400 to 800 yards in a drive up both sides of the Pistoia-Bologna highway. Allied headquarters announced today.

With the town, the 1,250-foot heights designated as Hill 375 and Hill 476 make up a line dominating the area between the Bologna-Pistoia highway and the alternate Florence-Bologna road to the east. West of Highway 64 where the U. S. 10th Mountain Division opened a strong attack two weeks ago American and Brazilian troops made some progress through rugged terrain.

Allied fliers reported considerable movement in the German rear areas, including much traffic in both directions along the Po valley highway leading to Bologna.

Correspondent For A. P. Is Reported German Prisoner

By NOLAN NORGARD
Rome, March 4—(Delayed by censorship)—(P)—Joseph Morton, Associated Press war correspondent, was captured by the Germans last December 26 and later was reported unofficially to be in a German prisoner of war camp.

British officer who returned from a mission in enemy territory informed officials at Allied headquarters in the Mediterranean that he saw the Germans seize Morton and several Allied officers. No word of Morton's capture has yet come from the Germans through official channels, Allied officials said.

Morton flew into enemy territory in a bomber sent to evacuate American airmen who had been shot down. He stayed behind when the airmen were flown out, intending to return to Italy on a later

The First Army, closing swiftly to the middle Rhine south of Cologne, struck within six miles of the river center of Bonn (101,000). Beyond the Kyll river on the approaches to Coblenz, Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's Third Army was declared by the German communique to have made a deep breach in Nazi lines northeast of Kyllburg. Patton's movements were largely blacked out—similar to the secrecy prevailing during the great Rhineland breakthrough. His nearest reported distance from Coblenz was 44 miles.

Tanks and infantry rolled through the great industrial area in the north and western sections of Germany's fourth largest city, and shelled the railroad marshalling yards, among the biggest in the Reich.

The fall of Cologne was expected hourly. The German communique said that south of Cologne Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's "Blacked Out" Third Army had achieved a deep breach in German lines guarding the middle Rhine and Coblenz in the area northeast of Kyllburg and pushing beyond the Kyll river, last great natural barrier, from two bridgeheads four and five miles wide and three deep.

Between these erupting fronts, the American First Army pushed it within seven miles of Bonn.

To the north, the foe was feverishly strengthening fortifications east of the Rhine and mustering troops to man them.

Refugees Flee to American Lines From Battle-Torn City

By HAL BOYLE
Cologne, March 6—(P)—German refugees plodded westward out of this wreck of a city as three American divisions stabbed today for its heart.

Men and women of all ages, their faces showing neither hate nor fear, but reflecting the despair of all homeless fugitives, streamed toward the American lines by the hundreds.

Some were carrying babies or leading children by the hand. Their household valuables were piled in carts or perambulators, and included blankets to protect them against the March cold.

The last ditch defenders of the city, estimated by one U. S. staff officer at less than 1,000, were withdrawing slowly into the "Altstadt" or "old town" section bordering the Rhine itself.

They were surrounded by Yank armor and infantrymen. One-fifth of the 25 square miles (Turn to Page Seven)

Flight, However, Subsequent Fleets Were Impossible

The British officer informed American air force officials that he watched from a hiding place when the enemy troops seized several men wearing U. S. army uniforms and he was absolutely certain that Morton was among them.

He said those captured seemed in good physical condition, although some of them had suffered minor frostbite from hiding in the mountains.

Air officers said the British officer told them he subsequently learned that Morton was in a German prison camp.

The capture interrupted a spectacularly successful career as a war correspondent begun in the summer of 1942 when Morton landed in Liberia with American

Hitler Not On Hand When Churchill Visits Germany

By WES GALLAGHER
Juelich, Germany, March 3—(Delayed by Censor)—(P)—Prime Minister Churchill paid a call to Germany today in a long-awaited personal triumph.

Adolf Hitler was not on hand to receive him. The 70-year-old prime minister walked into Germany through the shattered Siegfried Line, once the symbol of the might of Hitler, who four years ago was promising to visit London.

Churchill looked around the ruins of this fortress city the most completely destroyed city since St. Lo—without visible displeasure and said grimly: "There will not be any unemployment around here after the war."

It took considerable argument by Lt. Gen. William Simpson of the 9th Army, who acted as guide, to keep the fearless British warrio from visiting the Rhine itself at Duesseldorf.

With Churchill in Germany, March 4 (Delayed by censors)—(P)—Prime Minister Churchill told frontline troops today that "one strong heave will win the war" and bring down tyranny in Europe.

Standing in cold drizzle before Scottish troops of the famous 51st Highland Division, which has been fighting under the Canadian First Army in the northern Rhine, Churchill asserted that "soon the enemy will be driven across the (Turn to Page Seven)

NEW YUGOSLAV REGIME

London, March 6—(P)—Marshal Tito is expected to complete formation of a new United Yugoslav government almost immediately, advisers from Belgrade said today. The leader of the Partisan forces was named to form the new government, a dispatch said, after he and Dr. Ivan Subasic, premier of the Yugoslav government-in-exile, had handed in the resignations of their respective cabinets.

DAPPER DAN SPEAKER

Pittsburgh, March 6—(P)—The Dapper Dan Club announces Senator Albert (Happy) Chandler of Kentucky will be the speaker at its annual dinner here March 13.

Charter For Americas Is Toned Down

By NORMAN CARIGNAN
Mexico, City, March 6—(P)—The Inter-American conference was expected to give formal approval today to an "economic charter for the Americas" toned down considerably from its original form but calling in general for more free trade and increased industrialization in this hemisphere.

After 16 hours of torrid debate a conference subcommittee late last night approved the charter with three important revisions. Only Uruguay and Columbia made exceptions, which will be explained by their representatives at a meeting late today of the committee on post-war economic problems.

Full committee approval, tantamount to conference adoption, appeared certain. The charter would appear in the final acts of the conference as a preamble to economic resolutions already adopted.

The conference, meanwhile, is trying to complete a formal statement on Argentina, and to give final consideration to a news freedom resolution.

KANE FIREMAN FOUND WITH FEET FROZEN

Kane, March 6—(P)—Physicians had hopes today of saving the frozen feet of Floyd Reed, assistant chief of the Kane fire department, who was found in a semi-conscious condition along Route 68, three miles north of here.

The Kane Summit hospital reported his condition fair.

Reed said he could not recall anything that happened after he left work Friday.

BATTLE FOR IWO BELIEVED NEARING END

Supplies Pour Ashore On East and West Coasts For Knockout Blow In Savage Conflict

2,000 MARINES DEAD

BULLETIN
New York, March 6—The Tokyo radio declared today that American Marines on Iwo Island "have launched a violent attack on Japanese lines and the fighting has reached a decisive stage." The broadcast was recorded by BBC, the BLUE network said.

By VERN HAUGLAND
U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Guam, March 6—(P)—The clincher blow in the savage 16-day old battle for Iwo, where more than 2,000 Marines have died while killing more than 12,000 Japanese, was poised today—grown in power by supplies pouring ashore on the east and west coasts.

There were no appreciable changes in the lines yesterday as the Leathernecks, holding more than two-thirds of the eight square mile island, built up their positions for a grand scale assault on the rocky defense-studded north end.

In Washington yesterday, Navy Secretary Forrestal disclosed on his return from a visit to Iwo that 2,050 Marines have been killed, adding the loss was not out of proportion to the importance of taking the island. It is needed to put American fighter planes and Liberator bombers within range of Japan.

Forrestal gave no figures for wounded and missing. The last official figures supplied by Adm. Chester W. Nimitz covered casualties for the first three days. The figures included 644 killed, 4,168 wounded and 560 missing, although some of the missing since have been located.

Both Forrestal and Nimitz have given the incomplete count of Japanese dead found inside American lines at more than 12,500. Other enemy dead are known to be buried under smashed pillboxes. Still others are behind the Japanese lines, a dwindling area which has been shelled by Fifth Fleet warships, pounded by Marine artillery and bombed by planes.

Pittsburgh Looks For Flood Stage

Pittsburgh, March 6—(P)—Pittsburgh's rivers will crest at 27 feet—two feet above flood stage—by 3 a. m. tomorrow morning, Weatherman W. S. Brotzman predicted today.

Heavy rainfall over both the Monongahela and Allegheny river basins are expected to send the river slightly out of its banks for the third time in a week.

The rise was attributed to rainfall up to one and one half inches on the Monongahela and up to one inch on the Allegheny. On the Ohio river below Pittsburgh, rainfall was heavier.

The rivers rose to 27.4 the second time when today's rise began. More rain was predicted for today and much colder weather expected tonight. The temperature is expected to drop from a high of 55 today to 25 tonight and tomorrow.

Cincinnati, O., March 6—(P)—Waters of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers—plus hundreds of rain-swollen tributaries—rolled toward the disaster stage today all the way from Pittsburgh to Memphis.

Fed by incessant rains that totaled nearly three inches in 24 hours at some points, the flood waters forced thousands from their homes and menaced war-busy arsenal plants along the rivers.

The Ohio rose beyond 64 feet at Cincinnati, where flood stage is 52 feet, and river men saw a possible 70 foot stage coming.

YOUTH SENTENCED IN FATAL SHOOTING

Pittsburgh, March 6—(P)—Wenzel R. Keller, 15, of Tarentum, today faced an indefinite term at White Hill Reformatory, Camp Hill, after pleading guilty yesterday to the fatal shooting of Walter F. Kinder, 25, during a hunting trip in Frasier township last November.

Judge Frank T. Patterson, fixing the degree at voluntary manslaughter, said "there isn't any question that there was a sudden surge of sudden temper," adding that the youth would not have committed the act 10 seconds before or 10 seconds after.

To Honor Founder In Abbreviating State

Harrisburg, March 6—(P)—The correct way to abbreviate Pennsylvania will be Penn. If the state legislature approves a bill offered by Rep. Joseph A. Dague (R-Clearfield). The measure points out "the name of the founder of this commonwealth lends itself appropriately as an abbreviation for Pennsylvania and its use will perpetuate the memory of this tolerant advocate of the dignity of man."

100,000 Japs Destroyed On Luzon Island

By JAMES HUTCHESON
Manila, March 6—(P)—Destruction of six of the 10 Japanese divisions on Luzon island was announced today by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who said the remaining enemy troops, effectively bottled up in the mountains, were under continuous attack and "their position is critical."

Six Japanese divisions could number close to 100,000 men. More than 125,000 Japanese have been killed on bloody Leyte island, south of Luzon, making a total for these two islands alone of 225,000 dead Japanese troops, including some of the empire's best.

Mac Arthur, reporting gains on all Luzon fronts and effective air strikes against Formosa and China coast shipping, said that on Luzon "the equivalent of six divisions, with supporting elements, have been destroyed, together with the main supply routes."

Twenty-fifth Division Yanks pushing into the Caraballo mountains won more of the Balete Pass road leading to the Cagayan valley of northern Luzon, while the 35th and 43rd divisions near the west coast drove through the Zambales mountains in an enveloping move against enemy positions.

Northeast of Manila the Sixth Infantry and First Cavalry Divisions were slowly overcoming strong defense positions along the Antipolo-Wawa line on the Marikina watershed.

American bombers were active on all fronts.

FEW RETURNING VETS APPLY FOR BENEFITS

Harrisburg, March 6—(P)—Comparatively few returning veterans have applied for unemployment benefits under the GI bill, and many of these have refused referral to jobs, reports State Director Floran J. Boland of the War Manpower Commission.

After State Secretary William H. Chesnut of labor and industry said the WMC had failed to place 7,136 ex-servicemen in jobs in five months, Boland declared in a statement.

"Despite exclusion of veterans from manpower controls, offices of the U. S. Employment Service, throughout Pennsylvania are placing nearly 65 per cent of all Pennsylvania ex-servicemen in jobs."

SUICIDE USES GAS

Erie, March 6—(P)—Miss Jennie Stensiron, 40, killed herself by sitting before a cooking range in the kitchen of her home and putting a blanket over her head after turning on the gas, Coroner W. W. Wood reported today. Wood said a neighbor discovered the body this morning.

Ninth Son Flunks Induction Exams

Lehigh, March 6—(P)—The ninth son of Mrs. Russell McFarland today said he "flunked" a Selective Service physical examination in Wilkes-Barre, last week-end.

"I don't know why," said 18-year-old Marcus K. Smith. He said a navy physician told him he had not passed, but that he was not to tell anyone until "Monday or Tuesday."

Lehigh Selective Service officials said under the law they are not allowed to reveal the reasons for rejection.

His 49-year-old mother, who has eight sons serving in the Armed Forces, said she was awaiting official classification. She and several Lehigh residents sent a telegram to President Roosevelt requesting special consideration for Marcus.

Another son, Clinton, was reported missing in action, and last week Mrs. McFarland heard that a third son, Melvin, has been injured.

SOVIET UNITS FIGHTING AT ODER RIVER

German Command Says Zhukov's Troops Wheeling Westward on Forty-Mile Front

KNOCKOUT BLOW NEAR

By RICHARD KASSISCHKE
London, March 6—(P)—Russian troops closing on Stettin have reached the Oder near Greifenhagen, 11 miles south of the port, a Moscow dispatch said today. The Germans declared the Soviets had thrust to within 13 miles of Stettin bay and 35 miles of the U-boat base of Swinemunde.

Red army artillery was shelling Stettin, the port of Berlin at the Oder's mouth.

The river divides into two main channels at Greifenhagen. The German high command said Marshal Gregory Zhukov's First White Russian army was wheeling westward on a 40-mile front from Stargard to Greifenberg, the latter town 14 miles from the Baltic coast and 17 northeast of captured Naugard.

It said a Zhukov spearhead had been stopped northeast of Gollnow at a point 13 miles from Stettin bay. Gollnow is northwest of Stargard and southwest of Naugard, both captured yesterday.

The Berlin radio asserted Zhukov had massed five infantry and two tank armies on the central sector for a push westward on Berlin.

Moscow dispatches said Zhukov's First White Russian army was advancing steadily beyond Stargard, 19 miles east of Stettin, and Naugard, 22 miles north of Stargard, and tightening his flank on the Baltic coast in preparation for a new push on Berlin.

As Zhukov thus got set for a knockout blow against Stettin, capture of which would be a strategic prize, Marshal K. K. Rokossovsky's Second White Russian army to the northeast slashed deeper into the coastal strip of Pomerania between Danzig and Koelsin.

The battle for Stettin seemed virtually under way, although Zhukov's hardest blows at the moment apparently were directed toward Gollnow and Cammin, on the last main road and railway to the seacoast east of the Oder.

Operators To Reject Lewis Fund Proposal

Washington, March 6—(P)—Bituminous coal operators were ready today with a reply to John L. Lewis's demand for a 10-cent-a-ton royalty to provide a "rainy day" fund for his miners.

Best guesses after the operators adjourned a caucus last night was that their answer will be a flat "no."

Presumably it will be given union representatives when closed-door negotiations on a contract to replace the one expiring March 31 are resumed. They began yesterday, apparently without a decision of any of Lewis's 18 demands.

Last night's operator conference reportedly was called to dispose of the royalty issue, which the miners say would involve payments up to $60,000,000 a year in to a union fund over which the operators would have no control.

FORMER SENATOR DIES

Phillipsburg, March 6—(P)—Funeral services will be held tomorrow for former State Senator Harry B. Scott, 66, who died Sunday following several years' illness. He served as president pro tempore of the senate from May, 1933 to January, 1935. Elected to the senate in 1926, Scott served two terms in the house in 1914 and 1916.

EXTENDED FORECAST

Extended weather forecast for the period Wednesday March 7 through Sunday, March 11:
Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia: Temperatures will average about normal; cold Wednesday with rising trend remainder of week, becoming colder by Sunday; moderate rain south portion and rain or snow north portion occurring about Thursday and again about Saturday or Sunday.

Warren School Pupils Show High Degree of Intelligence

In a brief report presented to school board last evening, Superintendent John G. Rossman showed that achievement tests given in local schools in the last week of the first semester revealed Warren school pupils up to the norms established for the nation, or slightly higher. Another portion of his report showed 169 11th and 12th grade pupils enrolled for correspondence courses ranging from aviation to trigonometry.

Also at last night's meeting of the board, Charles R. Beck was appointed assistant secretary to take over the work of Miss Emma Akins while she is ill and Superintendent Rossman was instructed to write Miss Akins a letter expressing the board's regret at her confinement to the hospital.

CAP Requires Space for New Equipment

Due to the patriotism and generosity of E. L. Stein, local merchant, Civil Air Patrol is now provided with quarters at 338 Pennsylvania avenue, west, where training aids and equipment, issued to the local squadron by the Army Air Forces, can be stored and used. The space has been fitted up as a classroom and laboratory and equipped with training aids used by the Army and Navy Air Forces in training of the flying personnel.

Until Mr. Stein made it possible for Civil Air Patrol to have space which could be utilized exclusively for the equipment which has now been procured, it was impossible for the local officers of Civil Air Patrol to have their requirements for equipment honored. Under present circumstances, all Army Air Force equipment which is made available for Civil Air Patrol use can now be requisitioned and will be received for the use of the Civil Air Patrol Cadet training program. A great many training aids have already been received and more are on order. The advantages to the cadets of Warren cannot be overemphasized.

On Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. the general public is invited to come to the squadron headquarters and examine all training devices and equipment now set up. There will be competent instructors to demonstrate and explain all of the equipment. A navigation trainer used in teaching navigation by air by dead reckoning, will be in operation. A reflector trainer, used for aircraft identification and recognition range, will also be in operation. A class in Morse code will be in session and other training aids in identification courses, navigation courses and other aviation subjects will be on view. The training program conducted for Civil Air Patrol Cadets will be discussed and parents of boys and girls from 15 to 18 years of age are especially invited to visit this display.

Struthers Wells Band Plans For Open Rehearsal Thursday

Another of the popular "open rehearsals" has been scheduled by the Struthers Wells band, to be held this coming Thursday, March 8 at 7:30 p. m. in the Struthers Wells band room. The band room is located on the third floor of the Struthers Wells Machine Shop building, at Chestnut street and Pennsylvania avenue, with entrance through the Personnel Department entry, just off Pennsylvania avenue, across from the Pennsylvania railroad station.

This, like previous open rehearsals, is open to anyone who plays or has played a band instrument, and who would like to "sit in" on a regular band rehearsal. All such visitors are welcome, regardless of what musical organizations they may be affiliated with.

A regular rehearsal is held from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m., with some light refreshments served at the conclusion of the rehearsal to provide an opportunity to talk things over and "meet the gang".

It should be noted that the Struthers Wells band has been on a "co-ed" basis since last summer, since it seemed logical that the band should not exclude women at a time when women are playing so important a role in the work of the company which the band represents. Hence, any feminine musicians who may be interested in attending the open rehearsal can be assured both that they will be welcome, and that they will find enough girls there so that they need not feel out of place.

Possibly it is due to the presence of the feminine contingent that the Struthers Wells Band Room has recently been repainted, and that the heating provisions have been considerably improved. Additional chairs have been provided, too.

Civic Group Hears Talk On Sylvania

The March meeting of the North Warren Civic Club was held last evening in the community hall with a good attendance. At the conclusion of the business session, Ray Lebeur introduced the guest speaker, Arthur Chapman, of the Warren Sylvania unit.

In his remarks Mr. Chapman stressed the work being done at the local Sylvania plant and had with him a fine display of articles being made. Much time was spent in inspection of these items and in questioning Mr. Chapman concerning them.

At the close of the evening, the social committee served refreshments to climax an interesting and enjoyable program.

John W. Wilson, recently appointed forester in charge of the Compulster district near Warren and named to direct forest product operations in Warren and Erie counties during wartime, has sent out a new appeal to all farmers and others in this area owning commercial woodlands to get out more logs and, if possible to handle the delivery of the logs to sawmills, in view of the manpower shortage. Wilson said that the lumber shortage is rapidly becoming acute.

STATE HIGHWAY ZONING URGED TO PROTECT PENNSYLVANIA SCENERY

The PENNSYLVANIA ROAD-SIDE COUNCIL, Inc., believes there can be only one answer to the question as to whether Pennsylvania shall have clean, attractive, safe highways or a succession of sign-cluttered "ribbons-slums."

Approximately 1,000,000 residents of Pennsylvania are voicing their disapproval of existing highway conditions thru the cooperating agencies represented by the Roadside Council. They are demanding suitable regulatory legislation which would clean up existing highways and protect new ones. The Council is recommending State Highway Zoning which would confine billboards, roadside stands (with the exception of those selling farm products raised on the property) and other commercial establishments to "Service Districts," within the towns and villages. Fewer highways would be needed if traffic could move freely, without commercial distraction, accident rates could be reduced, property values maintained, and Pennsylvania's unusual rural scenery could be spared for a very valuable tourist business.

Mrs. Cyril G. Fox, Media, Pa., is President of the organization, with Dr. J. Horace McFarland, of Harrisburg, Mrs. Humbert B. Powell of Devon, and Mrs. J. B. Roessing of Pittsburgh, serving as Vice-Presidents. A Board of Directors, comprised of 25 leading citizens, and an Advisory Committee of 50 representative residents of Penna., govern the affairs of the Council. The Council's program is endorsed by about 50 organizations such as: Conservation Council of Pa., Keystone Automobile Club, Pa. Chapter American Society of Landscape Architects, Pa. Chapter of Forests & Waters, Pa. Div. Isaac Walton League of America, Pa. Farm Bureau Federation, Pa. Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs, Pa. Forestry Ass'n., Pa. Horticultural Society, Pa. Jr. Board of Commerce, Pa. League of Women Voters, State Federation of Garden and Women's Clubs, Pa. Nurserymen's Ass'n., Pa. Parks Ass'n., Pa. State Grange Home Economics Committee, Pa. State Planning Board, Pa. Turnpike Commission, Pitts. Motor Club, Valley Forge Park Commission.

Girl From Sugar Grove Is Inducted In Unique Manner

For the first time in history, a formal ceremony of the inducting of the oath to an enlistee in the Women's Army Corps took place in Corry on Saturday. At 11:00 a. m. in the Corry City Hall, Miss Ina Belle Phillips raised her right hand, repeated the words spoken by 1st Lt. Esther Potts, Recruiting Officer of the Erie WAC Recruiting District, and became a full fledged WAC. Miss Phillips passed her physical examination in Pittsburgh earlier this week. She is an employee of the Aero Supply Mfg. Co. in Corry, and did not want to take more time from her work in this war production factory. So Lt. Potts made the trip to Corry, and the ceremony took place in the City Hall.

Miss Phillips is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton James Phillips, Route 1, Sugar Grove. She is a graduate of Sugar Grove Joint Vocational High School, and for more than two years she has been employed at Aero. Her duties have been those of inspector, filing clerk, typist and bookkeeper, from time to time.

Brother Lincoln and sister Betty and Ruth live at the Sugar Grove residence.

A sister, Mrs. Maxwell Devereaux, resides at 322 East Smith street, Corry.

Cpl. Don L. Phillips, with the United States Marine Corps in the South Pacific is a brother-in-law.

She lists her hobbies as needle work and flying.

Ina will become a Blue Angel. She has selected the Medical Department as her branch of the service. Upon completion of a six weeks basic training period, she will be assigned to an enlisted technicians school for six weeks, and then to an Army hospital for a month of on-the-job training. Upon successful completion of this course, she will receive a rating of Technician Fifth Grade, and will administer to the needs of wounded men returned from battlefields overseas.

Thousands of such women are needed urgently by the Medical Department. The necessity is immediate and vital. Consult your WAC recruiter.

The representatives from the Erie WAC Recruiting office will be in Warren on Tuesday. Miss Kathleen Simmons, CAP-WAC recruiter may be called any time at 741 or 3094, Warren.

WARTIME CHALICES

Chaplains with the U. S. armed forces use chalices made of gold-plated over an iron base. Copper and brass will not be used to manufacture articles of religious devotion until after the war.

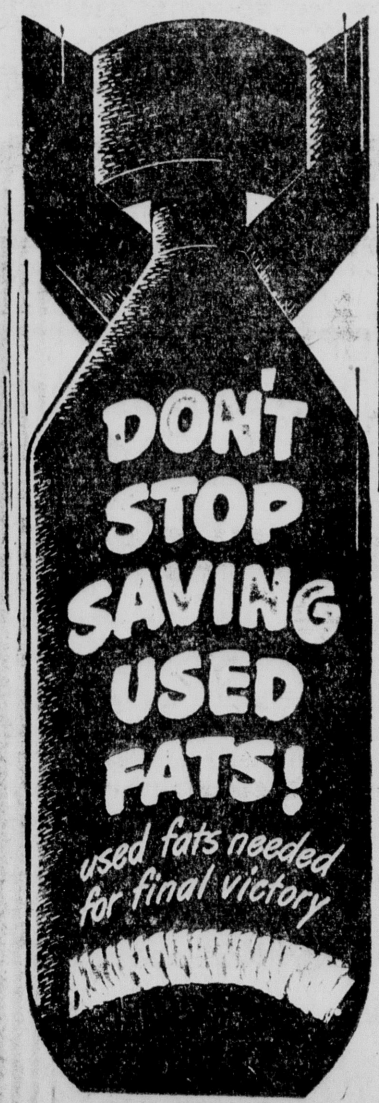

Before adjusting hems to new lengths, rip the hem and wash the garment.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent uric acid attacks with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatism, raised leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Council Places Quarantine on Dogs For Next Six Months

With rabies prevalent in Chautauque county and other counties adjoining this county the Police Committee of the Town Council last night imposed a quarantine on all dogs for the next six months. The quarantine will halt all dogs from running at large and they will not be allowed on the streets unless accompanied by their owners, and then upon a leash. The ordinance was passed three readings and will become a law as soon as signed and posted. Burgess Steber, the police and members of council have been deluged with telephone calls relative to the dog situation during the past few weeks.

The regular meeting of the Town Council was a short one at which the finance committee presented its regular report and bills amounting to $12,134.78 were ordered paid. The report of the borough auditor was also received and ordered placed on file.

An ordinance relating to vacation and sick leaves and the method of reporting by heads of the various departments was passed. By the new method the borough secretary will be given more opportunity to compile payrolls.

It was suggested by the Street Committee that inasmuch as Street Commissioner E. T. Beck had carried on at home with all book paper work and became ill due to overwork during the heavy snow that he be paid for the full month. It was also suggested that the streets be washed with heavy streams of water following the melting of ice off the pavements.

Report was made that the sanitary sewer under the Liberty St. bridge across the mill pond was broken. The situation created is a bad one. Repairs will be made.

Police last month recovered recovered $240 worth of stolen goods and found $155 worth of goods that had not been stolen. There were 35 arrests during the month. The parking meters from January 31 to February 28 produced revenue amounting to $539.98 as against $636.56 for the same period in 1944. Burgess Steber's report showed $60 in licenses paid.

A recess was taken during which the police committee and borough solicitor conferred relative to the physical condition of Patrolman Wally Otrid. Mr. Otrid fell while on duty and injured his right leg. The city is responsible for the affair and it was voted to pay Mr. Otrid and to have him consult a neurosurgeon.

There were 19 fire calls with a loss of $1518 in January and 9 calls with a loss of $2200 in February.

The borough scales produced $16.85 during the past month. Repairs to the Pennsylvania avenue bridge across the Coneywango creek are needed but will be attended to at a later time.

A letter was read from the Penleele stating no new street lights can be installed during the war period.

Repairing of playground equipment is about completed and seven trees were removed by the park employees last month.

A report showed the Airport had produced $21.83 last month. Solicitor Blackman stated he had been handed a proposed plan for the erection of a police pension fund but suggested that it be studied by the chairman of the finance committee, chairman of the police committee, president of council and the borough solicitor.

Burgess Steber reminded Council of the contract with the Penleele expires soon and that negotiations might well be started soon.

A letter was read from the Secretary of the Association of Boroughs relative to contacting the State Legislators on the securing of the gasoline tax by the municipalities of the state. It was reported that this had been done.

Following the regular meeting "The Big Sixteen" went into executive session relative to the recent election of a Second Captain in the Fire Department. At the election held in February Mr. Hampton, chairman of the Fire Committee, was queried by Mr. Patchen as to whether there were "any more applications" when the name of Hartwell Willey was suggested. Mr. Hampton replied "No."

At the executive session a statement from James Tredeco, who had served for a year as Lieutenant in the department stating that he had filed an application with Mr. Hampton and that it had been prepared for him with a duplicate copy. This was attached to his statement.

Mr. Hampton in a short speech stated that he had Mr. Tredeco's application in his file and in a rather apologetic manner suggested that perhaps he had been wrong in the way the matter had been handled.

Council took no action.

County Men Expected to Sail Lake Fleet

Spring break-up of the ice blocking Great Lakes shipping lanes will draw an estimated 17 men from Warren county to help man the vessels that ply America's inland waterway.

The committee represents the entire bulk shipping industry of the Great Lakes. Its report shows eight men from this area last season were engaged on the fleet of 400 vessels that moved a total of two and one-half times all the tonnage handled by this country's combined wartime merchant marine.

To approach this record, the War Manpower Commission estimates a total of 14,000 officers and seamen will be needed to start navigation in the next 30 days. Forecast of employment in this area is verified by letters of application arriving at the Cleveland, O., office of the lake vessel committee for free courses in seamanship being offered for the first time this year at principal lake ports.

The classes include five days of intensive training in the rudiments of seamanship for beginners of 16 years of age or over and similar courses for prospective able-bodied seamen, oilers and firemen.

The completion of these free courses leads directly to jobs on Great Lakes vessels that pay upward from $1,250—plus good food and lodging aboard ship—for the eight months of shipping from April to November.

Figures taken from the savings plan conducted for Great Lakes seamen show that men applying now for beginners' jobs can have an average of $1,000 in the bank by the time they return home in the fall from helping to deliver the iron ore, coal, grain, limestone and petroleum on which American industry depends.

SOCIETY NEWS

Theatre-goers Anticipating Personal Appearance of Hope Summers Thurs.

Communities such as Warren, farther than ever from Broadway and the theatre centers through wartime travel restrictions, may rely on their newspapers, their radio programs and infrequent personal appearances for their glimpses of the latest in comedy and drama.

That such news is eagerly welcomed by the theatre-loving population is seen in the enthusiastic response given announcement that the Woman's Club will present Hope Summers in person in the club house on Thursday evening of this week.

Tickets for her program, which will begin at 8:30 in the club auditorium, are available at the club office and have been placed at a reasonable figure. The Entertainment Committee, in charge of sponsoring the attraction, has made arrangements, also for a half-price admission for those of student age.

Tickets are also available at any time during store hours at the lending library of the Metzger-Wright store and students may contact the dramatic teacher, Mrs. Phyllis Stanley.

A radio actress for the past four and one-half years, Hope Summers has been heard in "First Nighter", "Road of Life", "Guiding Light" and other network dramas originating in Chicago studios. She had her own repertory theatre in her home town of Evanston, Ill., from 1935 to 1942.

Beyond this she had done a unique service for the drama, for her play presentations—condensed versions of current hits and the enduring classics—have brought Broadway to many places where Broadway seldom comes and to countless other communities whose theatre-goers have been unable to go to Broadway.

Burma Missionary Is Guest Speaker For Local Meeting

The March meeting of the International Mission Study Group was held in Calvary Baptist church Friday afternoon, with 130 women present.

The Grace Methodist and St. Paul's Lutheran churches cooperated in presenting an especially well prepared program, with Mrs. Arvid Danielson presiding.

A challenging devotional message was given by Mrs. Walter P. Mathyer, who used as her theme "Applied Christianity", based on the Scripture Exodus 14:13-15. A solo, "The Holy Hour" by Nevin, was sung by Miss Alfreida Laugerquist, accompanied by Mrs. Emil Jacobson.

The guest speaker was Mrs. Ola Hanson, of Pittsburgh, a former missionary to Burma, where she, with her husband, served of over half a century working with the Kachins. Mrs. Hanson spoke of their work among these primitive but friendly and gracious people. She gave much credit to the home churches, which had sent out missionaries.

Dr. and Mrs. Hanson were the means of translating a language of signs with the hands to one of sound and words, later presenting to them the Bible in their own language.

Mrs. C. W. Edgett announced the last meeting of this group, to be held in Trinity Memorial Episcopal church April 6, with the North Warren Presbyterian and Emanuel and Evangelical Reformed churches cooperating.

Following the singing of a closing hymn, Rev. C. L. Wessman pronounced the benediction.

The following women acted as ushers: Mrs. Charles Canby, Mrs. L. W. Garber, Mrs. E. H. Armstrong and Mrs. E. H. Haglund.

At the close of the program a fellowship hour was enjoyed in the church parlors with Mrs. W. C. Duff and Mrs. Nore Gustafson presiding at a prettily decorated table.

Grange News

PLEASANT GRANGE

Members of the Pleasant Juvenile Grange will meet Wednesday evening at seven o'clock. All members are asked to be present for an important announcement.

PLEASANT GRANGE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Members of Pleasant Grange had a birthday party Friday evening for eighteen members. The program was opened with a delightful thirteen dinner, the committee being: Mr. and Mrs. Bert Owen, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kiser, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snively, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Wilcox and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Smith. Credit for the clever table decorations goes to Mrs. Kiser.

Dinner was followed by a Ladies Be Seated program under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Chapman and Glenn Kiser, master of the grange, acted as master of ceremonies. The servicemen were honored with a poem and those present were called upon to take part in the program. They were: Bob Johnson, Lee Hall and Walter Gensberg. Jacob Schuler, whose birthday is this week, was made an honorable member. Estella Sailor was presented the Pleasant Township orchid for the largest family. William Gibson received a cigar for being married the longest. The evening was concluded with games, the winners receiving money for being funny. There was also round and square dancing.

Personal Paragraphs

Street Commissioner E. T. Beck has been out during the past week following a breakdown due to overwork during the time Warren streets were snowbound. Mr. Beck worked day and night and got the streets in fair condition before he was taken ill and put to bed by his physician. He is still not in the best of shape but is superintending the work under way about the city.

Mrs. L. A. Carlson, Warren-Kinzua, had the misfortune to fall and fracture her right wrist on Monday afternoon. X-rays were taken at the hospital and she was discharged after a splint had been applied.

About nine o'clock last evening Willard Littlefield, 14, of 11 Terrace street, was brought to Warren General Hospital, where x-rays revealed he had fractured his left clavicle when he fell while roller skating. He was discharged and returned to his home.

Mrs. Flora Jewell, aged North Warren resident who was badly burned at her home on Sunday morning, is still in a serious condition in Warren General Hospital. Aged nearly 81 years, she is suffering third degree burns and extreme shock.

Miss Dorothy Munksgard, student nurse at Bellevue Hospital in New York, was home over the weekend to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Munksgard, Crest street. She will return to WCA Hospital in Jamestown the middle of May to complete her training period.

DEMOCRATIC WOMEN

Members of the County Federation of Democratic Women held their regular meeting last evening at the home of the president, Mrs. C. I. McCracken, 205 Pennsylvania avenue, east. Following the business session, an informal period was spent in visiting and refreshments were served.

WILLING WORKERS

North Warren Willing Workers will hold their regular meeting in the church parlors at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday, with Mrs. Tarbox, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Clark as hostesses.

STONEHAM AID

Members of the Ladies' Aid of the Stoneham Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at two o'clock in the community house. A large attendance is hoped for.

Dents in wood surfaces may be straightened out by placing a piece of dampened blotting paper or woolen cloth over the dented place and then pressing it with a warm iron.

We Must Meet Our Fat Salvage Quota for March!

THE NATION'S fat-salvage goal for March is 26,550,000 lbs. To realize that tremendous amount, this community—and every other in the nation—must fill its quota. Won't you go all out to help put the drive over the top this month?

Remember! Your country is depending on those used fats to help make medicines, bullets, synthetic rubber, soaps for military and civilian use, and hundreds of other essentials.

Check your own savings by this check list. Maybe you've been overlooking some of these sources.

Approved by OPA and WFA.
Paid for by industry.

HOW TO GET EXTRA RED POINTS!

1. SAVE all bits of fat you trim from meat, and fat scraps left on plates. Keep them in a small bowl and, once a week, melt them down.
2. SCRAPE pans before washing them. No amount is too small to be of use—even a tablespoon helps!
3. SKIM stews, soups, and gravies while they cook. Afterwards, chill them and scoop off the fat.
4. SAVE water in which you cook hot dogs, sausages, and ham. Chill, and scoop off the fat.
5. KEEP the can (any tin can will do) on the back of the stove where it's handy. When full, take to your butcher. Get 2 red points and 4¢ for every pound. Start today!

Personal Items

Dragons Invade Farrell For Sharpville Engagemen

Make 1st Playoff Appearance Against Blue Devils; Battle Erie If Victorious Tonight

The team that will face Erie Tech's Centaurs Friday night in the Erie East High School gymnasium will be decided tonight when Joseph A. Massa and his cohorts make their first playoff appearance at 8:00 p. m. on the Farrell hardwood against Sharpville's Blue Devils. Having twice collected the Section Two championship in their two years of District Ten action, the Blue and White cagers are exceptionally anxious to better the mark set last year by the Kelpin crew and further their advancement in the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association playoffs.

Both teams will have advantage in this evening's inter-section battle. The Warren Dragons have a definite height advantage, the Blue Devils' tallest man being six feet, while Joe Massa boasts three over the six foot class. Towering Jack Eaton, Al Babcock, and Ray Reed all stand in the upper range. Warren's opponent has had the opportunity to play on the big Farrell court earlier this year, whereas the local combine will be newcomers to the arena, with the exception of Joe Scalise and George Lucia. The remaining members of the squad have never been on the court.

Warren's record this season speaks for itself. The Blue and White schoolboys have annexed a total of 15 wins, receiving but six losses, two each from Bradford and Jamestown, and one each from Titusville and Oil City. The Jamestown defeat has been well avenged, and the boys may have a chance to avenge the Bradford beating, providing they can overcome both Sharpville and Erie Tech.

The Dragon cagers left this morning for their engagement to-night. 18 men, including players, coaches and managers, made the trip, and the players will have plenty of rest before appearing on the floor at 8.

Mentor Massa plans to start his usual first five. Joe Scalise and Al Babcock will be the two forward posts, with Jack Eaton holding forth at the center position, and George Lucia and Tom Juliano at guards. The coach must be given a great amount of credit for

Dragon Crew Cops Ind. and Team Scoring

Warren high school's Dragons not only captured their second straight Section Two basketball title this season but also capped the league's scoring honors.

Warren finished with 302 points to shade Oil City offensively by four points, and permitted the opposition 253 points, the best defensive mark. Joe Scalise wound up with 108 points to take individual scoring laurels.

Behind the Lines

Rumor has it that William H. (Bill) Anderson, title-winning Lower Merion High School basketball coach, has resigned his post at the small town school to return to his Alma Mater, Lafayette, to become basketball mentor, director of athletics, and supervisor of physical education there. The cagy Anderson has denied all rumors but has admitted having had several conferences with Lafayette officials. Anderson, whose Lower Merion teams have won four Pennsylvania state titles, coached Lafayette teams eight years before going to Merion in 1927. He became Lafayette's court mentor while a junior at the college.

Fritz Nagy, of Akron (Ohio) College, went on a 75-point scoring rampage last week against Westover and Westminster (Pa.) to oust Vince Hanson, of Washington State, from the first place in the National Collegiate individual high scoring basketball race. Nagy, who dumped in 96 points in his last three games, now has a total of 547 points in 23 games on 215 field goals and 117 free throws, while Hanson is in second place on 217 double-doubles and 100 singletons in 34 games. Hanson is likely to take over again, however, as he has two and possibly three games left to play against Oregon and Nagy's regular season is over.

Nothing like a good fight once in a while to stir things up. So think many members of various organizations about the state. Among these are the Warren Field and Stream Club and the St. Marys Sportsmen's Association. And both have voted a distinctly audible "no" to the proposed merger of the state game and fish commissions. By making this stand, these sportsmen are in direct contrast to a recent statement made by Colin Reed, president of the Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs of Pennsylvania, who said the proposed merger was in direct line with what the whole body of sportsmen was thinking. Evidently he did not contact local organizations before making that statement, otherwise he may have changed his remarks to some extent. Hunters and fishermen in this section, for the most part, can

Eagles Drop Rocky Grove Battle, 53-20

The Youngsville Eagles, playing their first playoff battle last night on the Oil City Junior High court, lost a 33-20 decision to the Rocky Grove quinet. The Eagles were decidedly off at the charity line, missing 13 out of 23 tries.

The Eagles made a poor showing in the first quarter, coming out on the trailing end of a 15-6 count, but the Jewellmen bounced back in the second stanza to hold the Grovers to 15 as they annexed 12. Welsh starred for the local quinet, netting a total of 13 markers.

The Rocky Grove aggregation moved further ahead in the third quarter, dropping in 13 to the Eagles' 7, to put the Grovers on the long end of a 43-25. The fourth quarter was the most outstanding, although the Grovers outscored the Youngsville quinet, 10-5, and came out with a 53-30 victory. The Eagles displayed their finest knowledge late in the third stanza and all during the fourth period.

Fetterolf and Douglas were the mainstays of the Rocky Grove crew, totaling 30 and 13 points, respectively.

Major League Baseball Clubs Open Spring Training Skeds

New York, March 6.—(P)—Spring training opens Wednesday for the first of the 16 major league baseball clubs but the manpower situation remains as indefinite as it was January 1.

Because congress has taken no definite action on proposed "work or else" legislation, War Mobilizer James Byrnes has been unable to give baseball's spokesmen any definite word on what to expect.

Meanwhile, the owners have gone ahead with plans, announced signing of contracts and drawn up schedules of exhibition games but still have their fingers crossed.

Washington breaks the ice Wednesday when the batterymen will report to Manager Ossie Bluege at College Park, Md. Owner Clark Griffith of the Senators has 24 of 36 men in the fold, most of any club.

Chicago's Cubs follow Thursday with their first drill at French Lick, Ind., where Manager Charley Grimm has been inspecting the grounds since Friday.

The New York Giants with six men on the dotted line and the Yankees with 16 both report Sunday, the Giants at Lakewood, N. J., and the Yanks at Atlantic City.

By Monday, March 19, all teams will be training.

Tonight's the night when the Dragon cagers "make their stand or fall" against Sharpville at Farrell.

The crew left this morning at 9:30 and lunched at Oil City. They also made an excursion to the Polk Institute before going on to Farrell. J. B. Leidig announced yesterday that following their evening meal, the boys would be "put to bed so as to be in tip-top shape." Gametime is slated for 8:00 on the dot, so, see you there, and lots of luck to the Blue and Whitties.

Men and Women In the Service

Standing in Line May Mean Different Things. It Appears

Many friends will read with interest the following letter to the Times-Mirror from Lt. Fred J. Boyd, who is serving with the Navy in the Pacific theatre:

"I'm writing just a brief note from the Admiralty Islands—Southwest Pacific theatre—to let you know that the recent deer escape in my 'old home town' rated our local news sheet. Though my time in Warren during the last ten years has been confined to short visits, it was a real thrill to see the article. There's a good bit of 'local pride' here regarding one's home town. Our new familiarity with guns often leads to a discussion of hunting and there's been a big difference of opinion on the relative merits of hunting grounds as regards deer. The little news item put northwestern Pennsylvania on top. No one else can claim they come floating into town.

The duty in this area is what the navy calls "rugged." Thanks to the "home front", though, there has been an amazing transformation in the short time that I've been here. Supplies are continually pouring in—not only weapons, but articles that make our living conditions a little more pleasant. It's not too pleasant living a mere 80 miles from the equator in torrid temperatures. If you hear complaints about rationing, remind those persons that many of the boys are standing in line—not for pork chops, cigarettes or stockings, but for a drink of fresh water.

As Personnel Officer for a squadron in the Naval Air Transport Service, though, I can say that the spirit of the men and the pride they take in their achievements here more than offset the inconveniences and hardships. Even so, I must admit there are several things I'd like to have—and just to show I haven't forgotten Warren—I could "go" for one of those "hot dogs with everything" just across the street from the Times-Mirror office!

Best regards from "down under".
Lt. Fred J. Boyd, USNR.

B-25 Engineer And Gunner in The Aleutians

Headquarters of Major General Davenport Johnson, 11th Air Force commanding general in the Aleutian Islands, announces that Cpl. John E. Sandstrom, 210 Grant street, has recently arrived in that theatre and has been assigned to combat duty as a B-25 engineer-gunner.

The medium bombardment squadron to which Cpl. Sandstrom has been assigned has distinguished itself many times in sea searches and patrol missions of the North Pacific. Members of this squadron have brought terror to surface craft and enemy shipping of all types in daring deck-level attacks of precision bombing and completely devastating strafing runs carried out in the face of great hazards in the home waters of the Japanese Empire.

Island targets of the Northern Kuriles have not been spared either by these intrepid men of the Eleventh Air Force who, flying land based planes from bases in the Western Aleutians, have flown thousands of miles over icy waters ferreting out the enemy and destroying him whenever the opportunity presented itself.

Cpl. Sandstrom, son of Mrs. Mary Anderson, and husband of Mrs. Frances H. Sandstrom, both of 210 Grant street, Warren, attended airplane mechanics school at Seymour-Johnson Field, N. C., gunnery school at Ft. Myers, Fla., and R. T. U. School at Greenville, S. C.

What To Do In Philippines

From the Philippines comes a self-explanatory tale of another Warren countian who is doing his bit in the thick of things:

L. B. Strassbaugh, carpenter's mate second class, was one of a group of veteran Seabees pontoon specialists who landed on Lingayen Gulf in the Philippines. Strassbaugh is a native of Sheffield.

After going ashore, they dug their slit trenches, lined them with blankets, and, regardless of enemy fire, quietly went to sleep.

Awakening the next morning, Strassbaugh and his mates picked up chunks of scrap metal which had landed in their foxholes during the night and quietly went about their business.

Word is received here from Camp Blanding, Fla., that Pvt. Morris H. Kintner, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Kintner, 12 Bauer street, has been promoted to the rank of corporal. Graduate of the Warren High School and formerly employed at Warner Bros. Columbia Theatre here, Cpl. Kintner entered service in 1944.

Mrs. Gussie Winsor, North South street, has received word from Michael Cebra, somewhere in England, that he has been promoted from Corporal to sergeant.

Mrs. Sigvard Anderson, of Lander, has received word from her husband, Cpl. Anderson, that he has arrived somewhere in Italy.

Cpl. Alfred Nelson, stationed with the Military Police at the prisoner of war camp at Fort McClellan, Ala., home on ten-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Nelson, of Lander, and his wife in Jamestown.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Munksgard, Crescent street, have received a letter from their son, T/V Chester Munksgard, informing them that he is again back in the Philippines with his old outfit, after having been in New Hebrides.

Pvt. William J. Weidert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Weidert, 305 Beech street, has been transferred from Trux Field, Madison, Wis., to Camp Howze, Texas.

Again from the Pacific area comes word of how rapidly news travels, even in wartime. From the February 21st issue of the Tropical Tribune, Paul Rogers sends home a clipping which appeared in the Times-Mirror only a few weeks ago. This is the second reprint of the "deer story", the first having come last Friday from Fred Boyd, down in the Admiralty Islands.

News of Don Chiodo Come From England

Family and friends will read with interest the following communication just received from an 8th Air Force Liberator station somewhere in England:

Donald J. Chiodo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luigi Chiodo, 305 Laurel street, Warren, has been promoted from corporal to sergeant.

A gunner of a B-24 Liberator, Sergeant Chiodo has taken part in bombing missions to Magdeburg, Brunswick, and other war production centers of Germany. He is a member of the 446th Bomb Group, commanded by Col. Troy W. Crawford, of El Paso, Texas, which has completed more than 200 missions against enemy targets. A veteran group in Major General William E. Kepner's Second Air Division, it has participated in the Eighth Air Force's steady bombing of the principal targets in Europe—German oil industries, airplane factories, and the communication systems upon which her industry and army depend. Before D-Day, the targets included coast defenses, flying bomb sites, airfields and troop concentrations. The group has dropped over 12,000 tons of bombs and has flown more than 4,500 sorties against the enemy. The same planes which bomb enemy installations have also flown medical and food supplies to the people of France.

Sergeant Chiodo has been awarded the Air Medal, "for meritorious achievement in accomplishing with distinction aerial operational missions over enemy occupied Continental Europe. The courage, coolness, and skill displayed by him in the face of determined opposition materially aided in the successful completion of these dangerous missions. His actions reflect great credit upon himself and the Armed Forces of the United States."

A graduate of Warren High School, Sergeant Chiodo entered the service August 20, 1942. He received his wings at Ft. Myers, Florida.

OPA to Check Food Stores

Eleven hundred local war price and ration board volunteer price workers will begin a check this morning of every food store in western Pennsylvania. Alvin Williams, district director of the Office of Price Administration, Pittsburgh, announced last night.

The drive is being taken without formal general notice to the trade as in the past, and will cover 10,000 stores. Nor will the 20 items to be checked in each store be revealed as in the past, Williams said.

Special enforcement action will be taken by the district enforcement division, John A. Metz, Jr., its chief, announced. Where a merchant was found in violation in the last general price check of March, 1944, and is again in violation, injunctions will be sought in United States district court, he stated.

WAC EARNS MEDAL
Josephine Gigliotti, daughter of Mrs. Serafino Gigliotti, 28 Pine street, was recently awarded the Good Conduct Medal at Indian Township Cap Military Reservation, T/V Gigliotti, assigned as a personnel clerk at Indian town, enlisted in the Women's Army Corps in October, 1943, and was assigned to Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., for basic training.

DECORATION COMES
Mrs. Gertrude Gleason, 407 Fourth avenue, has received the Purple Heart awarded her son, Felix Bruce Gleason, killed in action over Czechoslovakia last August 24.

Invites You to Its Annual

Spring Opening

Wednesday

7:30 to 9:30 P. M.

March 7, 1945

Ford Winner's Orchestra

Easter is only three weeks away, earlier than usual this year, so Wednesday Evening you will want to look at our large collection of Easter fashions . . . all so new and exciting. The new silhouette that does so much for you, giving you that slim line below the waist and wide shoulders with fullness outlined in the newer sleeve treatments—the American look of today, which has turned back to the gay nineties for much of its fashion newness. All of those very latest fashions will be here for you to see Wednesday evening, along with those thrilling sailor hats and little girl bonnets. Oh, yes, remember to visit the Girltogs and Teentogs Shop on the Fourth Floor for your daughter's Easter wardrobe.

In the Housefurnishings and Housewares Departments it is Spring, too. These departments are also bubbling over with Spring ideas that you will want to carry home with you in your mind for future use. You will be thrilling with the beauty of this new Spring 1945 wherever you visit on our Four Floors Wednesday night. Do come early and stay late, so that you won't miss one item . . . for yourself, your family and your home. We'll be expecting you and looking forward to seeing you.

Dads-Lads Of St. Paul's In Annual Event

St. Paul's Dads and Lads met Friday evening for their 25th annual get-together, probably the first time in the whole 25 years that the event has been held during the Lenten season. Because of present tragic world conditions, when many fathers and sons are widely separated, it seemed most proper to have the event during this sacred and serious season of the church year.

James Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson, in his toast to Dads, touched the heartstrings of everyone present by his cheerful manner of presentation and his optimistic message of hope.

Rev. Nore Gustafson, in his toast to Lads, related in his usual pleasing manner, anecdotes that stimulated a character desire in sons and admonished fathers for not permitting God to be the senior partner in world affairs in the past 25 years.

Rev. Hans Pearson, of Sheffield, in the principal message of the evening, challenged every man "to perform his God-given task of having a part in the spiritual up-building of church and country which demands the love of every individual for one of his fellow men—regardless of color, creed or nationality—a program that fits in beautifully with the efforts of our humanity-loving president and his mankind-loving assistants."

James Peterson, a St. Paul's service man, told in detail of activities at a service center.

The inspiring "mission of music" was demonstrated in a solo beautifully sung by Earl Ericson, accompanied by Mrs. Emil Jacobson, and in a delightful trumpet duet played by Kenneth Lundahl and Dean Swanson.

R. Swanson was a very capable toastmaster, with J. A. Johnson in charge of devotions and the executive committee of the Brotherhood handling arrangements. A sincere thanks is due the women of St. Paul's who worked so diligently in planning a delicious dinner as accompaniment for the pleasant and profitable evening.

YOUNGVILLE

(From Page Four)

Sisters which met at her home on Bates street. There was a good attendance. Mrs. Nina Haight was reported convalescing at the Warren General hospital following an operation. Mrs. Clara Welsh presided at the business meeting. A donation was made to the service club. Hostess gifts were given. Mrs. Edna Haupt conducted a flower puzzle with Mrs. Welsh winner. A Noah Ark contest was enjoyed. Valentines were used in the grab bag. Mrs. Ida Henton and Mrs. May Downey poured for the luncheon. Each guest received a heart shaped sachet favor.

LOCALS

Mrs. Glen Sittler, Mrs. Lorraine Brooks, David Carlson, W. L. McCune were in attendance Sunday at the Townsend Club meeting in Warren with John Weir, National representative as the speaker.

All pupils of Youngville school from the 7th grade through the 12th grades are invited to the Shamrock party to be held in the high school gymnasium March 17th. Admission is the wearing of the green. There will be a floor show, dancing and eats.

The Luther League is meeting March 8th in the Saron Lutheran church parlors. The meeting will take the form of a Lenten meditation with Mr. Anderson as the speaker.

Brokenstraw Creek is rather high. Parts of Island park are overflowed. The park buildings have suffered some damage to roofs because of the heavy snow.

Miss Barbara Engstrom and Miss Barbara Knapp have returned to State College following their spring vacation with their parents in Youngville.

The Methodist men are meeting Thursday evening March 8th in the church parlors. The subject will be "Bibles" and on this Bible Night, the men are invited to bring their oldest Bible. A guest speaker will bring a message from the theme: "The Development of the Bible from the original writing to the present time."

The Methodist choir is working on an Easter cantata to be pre-

Stray Leaves From Notebook Of Reporter About Town

Spring signs are seen on every hand. And Wes Templeton blows to beat the band. Of how his tulips grow toward the sky. And now are 'bout four inches high.

Wylie Corbett joins the springtime chime. Claims corcus blooms big as a dime. And violets the 'tiny purple mites. Are trodden down by lads with kites.

And kids make drivers quake with fear. That a ball playing boy they'll smear. And ducks float on streams now all serene. While robins sing and blue birds preen.

But humans? Boy they cough and sneeze. And full of colds all loudly wheeze. The weather man spring joys blight. By predictin' "Much colder to-night".

They do say as how the boys and girls when they adjourn from the curfew closed spots troop to—

Mr. and Mrs. George Peterson and Mrs. J. A. Sagerdahl were recent Jamestown visitors.

Gurney Ball, who is particularly interested in the preservation of Wild Life says that the deer which have had a hard time finding enough food in the deep woods, now that the snow is going are seeking the lowlands for food. In support of this theory he reported that on a recent trip from Youngville to Garland, he counted 49 deer.

Oscar Lauger also is interested in preserving deer and recently donated to the local Fish and Game Club a quantity of potatoes to feed to the wild life.

Didja ever have a mess of eggs boiled in sap? . . . Cars with nicely rounded fenders are an exception. Most of the fenders have a 'j' or two . . . Alden Stearns, of Sugar Grove Rd will be out with his spiles in his sugar bush today according to his plans. Of course if the weather man changes his mind it just isn't our fault. . . George Burdick, of Tidoute is sealing beaver pelts this week, a point the trappers must not overlook . . . Burdick also is one of the growing clan that just doesn't see where feeding of deer gets the results it is supposed to get. He sort of feels that nature will take care of the deer, weeding out the weaklings and keeping the healthy deer alive. . . Elmer Wheeler, author of eight books on salesmanship, says that tradesmen who specialize in snappy comebacks when asked for war-scare items are slitting their own throats.

"When a customer comes in and says he would like a pack of cigarettes, don't snap 'so would I'," he advised retail grocers.

"And," he added, "when a customer wants a pound of butter, don't yell: 'Hey, Joe—c'mere and take a look at this guy who wants a pound of butter. He doesn't know there's a war on.'"

Mr. Wheeler warned that many customers will remember such things after the war.

Record Set At Library Story Hour

Another story hour attendance was set in the Warren public library on Friday afternoon. Nearly 300 children in the first, second and third grade groups gathered in the children's room to hear Mr. Betty Archibald, community storyteller. This is the largest attendance for the younger group.

The stories were especially popular with the children. They included a very amusing one from the Russian, Turnips on the Roof, and The Ogre Who Plays Jact, straws.

There has been an unusually large number of new children borrowers at the public library lately. Over twenty-five applications were asked for within a week's time.

Free tickets may be secured at the juvenile department circulation desk for the older group story hour, which will be held on Thursday afternoon, March 8th, at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Archibald will tell two favorite stories at that time to boys and girls in the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades. Because of the large number attending these community story hours, it is necessary to require admission tickets only.

The bird display, loaned by Mr. Rutledge, is being held over for another week. The public library has made this arrangement because of the interest the display has aroused, and to enable the Thursday afternoon group to see it.

CAPTURE OF COLOGNE MATTER OF HOURS

TANKS AND INFANTRY ROLL THROUGH INDUSTRIAL AREA IN ANCIENT RHINELAND BASTION

German Communique Says Lt. Gen. Patton's "Blacked Out" Third Army Has Achieved Deep Breach In Lines Guarding Middle Sector

AMERICAN FIRST IS SEVEN MILES FROM BONN

By JAMES M. LONG
Paris, March 6—(P)—Americans captured at least a third of Cologne by mid-morning today and forced the German defenders back into the old city section around the heart of the devastated metropolis. Three divisions—the Third Armored, Eighth and 104th Infantry—reached the Ringstrasse against surprisingly light opposition. The Germans fought in what once was the walled section of Cologne, by far the greatest traffic center in western Germany.

To the north, Lt. Gen. William H. Simpson's Ninth Army wiped out all but one small pocket on the Rhine south of the Dueseldorfer suburb of Neuss and drove, with the Canadians, into the Wesel pocket farther down the Rhine.

R. A. F. BOMBS SALZBERGEN OIL REFINERY

British Follow Up 1,100 Plane Assault During Night On Chemnitz, Berlin and Other Cities

33 FAIL TO RETURN

London, March 6—(P)—RAF heavy bombers staged a high-concentration attack in daylight today on the Salzbergen oil refinery 27 miles northwest of Munster in a follow-up to their 1,100-bomber assault last night on Chemnitz, Berlin, and three other cities. It was the 22nd consecutive day of Allied air blows.

The night assault concentrated on Chemnitz, but during Monday by 250 U. S. Flying Fortresses. Other formations hit synthetic oil plants at Bohlen near Leipzig, and targets at Mannheim and Gelsenkirchen while Mosquitos again again bombed Berlin. Thirty-three planes were missing from this night fleet, but some may have landed on continental bases.

The night raiders had dropped approximately 4,000 tons of high explosives on their three targets. Chemnitz is one of the main centers of the vast railway network spreading over Saxony and Allied air chiefs apparently are determined to deal it a knockout blow.

This is the same type of co-ordinated blow by which American (Turn to Page Seven)

Gains Scored By 5th Army in Italy

Rome, March 6—(P)—U. S. Fifth Army forces have captured the hamlet of Bisopra, 13 miles southwest of Bologna, after scoring advances of 400 to 800 yards in a drive up both sides of the Pistoia-Bologna highway. Allied headquarters announced today.

With the town, 2,250-foot heights designated as Hill 375 and Hill 476 make up a line dominating the area between the Bologna-Pistoia highway and the alternate Florence-Bologna road to the east.

West of Highway 64 where the U. S. 10th Mountain Division opened a strong attack two weeks ago American and Brazilian troops made some progress through rugged terrain.

Allied fliers reported considerable movement in the German rear areas, including much traffic in both directions along the Po valley highway leading to Bologna.

Correspondent For A. P. Is Reported German Prisoner

By NOLAN NORGAARD
Rome, March 4—(Delayed by censorship)—(P)—Joseph Morton, Associated Press war correspondent, was captured by the Germans last December 26 and later was reported unofficially to be in a German prisoner of war camp.

A British officer who returned from a mission in enemy territory informed officials at Allied headquarters in the Mediterranean that he saw the Germans seize Morton and several Allied officers. No word of Morton's capture has yet come from the Germans through official channels, Allied officials said.

Morton flew into enemy territory in a bomber sent to evacuate American airmen who had been shot down. He stayed behind when the airmen were flown out, intending to return to Italy on a later flight. However, subsequent flights were impossible.

The British officer informed American air force officials that he watched from a hiding place when the enemy troops seized several men wearing U. S. army uniforms and he was absolutely certain that Morton was among them. He said those captured seemed in good physical condition, although some of them had suffered minor frostbite from hiding in the mountains.

Air officers said the British officer told them he subsequently learned that Morton was in a German prisoner camp.

The capture interrupted a spectacularly successful career as a war correspondent begun in the summer of 1942 when Morton landed in Liberia with American troops.

Hitler Not On Hand When Churchill Visits Germany

By WES GALLAGHER
Jeuilich, Germany, March 3—(Delayed by Censor)—(P)—Prime Minister Churchill paid a call to Germany today in a long-awaited personal triumph. Adolf Hitler was not on hand to receive him.

The 70-year-old prime minister walked into Germany through the shattered Siegfried Line, once the symbol of the might of Hitler, who four years ago was promising to visit London.

Opponents To Pollution Bill Gird For Fight

Harrisburg, March 6—(P)—Administration forces looked for a showdown fight today on the Brunner anti-pollution bill. The measure, key to Governor Martin's waterway cleanup campaign, reached the amendment stage in the house with opponents reported planning moves to cripple it.

Another Martin conservation objective advanced with senate approval 38-6 of a bill to regulate strip mining of bituminous coal. The proposal goes to the house where both Republicans and Democrats said they would offer amendments.

With Churchill in Germany, March 4—(Delayed by censor)—(P)—Prime Minister Churchill told front-line troops today that "one strong heave will win the war" and bring down tyranny in Europe.

Standing in cold drizzle before Scottish troops of the famous 51st Highland Division, which has been fighting under the Canadian flag since the war in the northern Rhine, Churchill asserted that "soon the enemy will be driven across the (Turn to Page Seven)

Refugees Flee to American Lines From Battle-Torn City

By HAL BOYLE
Cologne, March 6—(P)—German refugees plodded westward out of this wreck of a city as three American divisions stabbed today for its heart.

Men and women of all ages, their faces showing neither hate nor fear, but reflecting the despair of all homeless fugitives, streamed toward the American lines by the hundreds.

Some were carrying babies or leading children by the hand. Their household valuables were piled in carts or perambulators, and included blankets to protect them against the March cold.

The last ditch defenders of the city, estimated by one U. S. staff officer at less than 1,000, were withdrawing slowly into the "Altstadt" or "old town" section bordering the Rhine itself.

They were surrounded by Yank armor and infantrymen. One-fifth of the 25 square miles (Turn to Page Seven)

New York Adopts Drastic Measure

Albany, N. Y., March 6—(P)—A law by which New York employers willfully exercising religious or racial prejudice in selecting workers face fines and imprisonment will go on the statute books after early signature by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

Legislative action on what both supporters and opponents termed "the most drastic measure ever enacted in the United States" was completed last night when the senate voted the bill, 49 to 6. The assembly approved the proposal last week, 109-32.

Dewey, 1944 Republican presidential nominee, threw his support behind the bill which was passed with unanimous minority Democratic support in both houses. Individual Republicans strongly opposed the proposal, although G. O. P. leaders were favorable.

KANE FIREMAN FOUND WITH FEET FROZEN

Kane, March 6—(P)—Physicians had hopes today of saving the frozen feet of Floyd Reed, assistant chief of the Kane fire department, who was found in a semi-conscious condition along Route 68, three miles north of here.

The Kane Summit hospital reported his condition fair. Reed said he could not recall anything that happened after he left work Friday.

BATTLE FOR IWO BELIEVED NEARING END

Supplies Pour Ashore On East and West Coasts For Knockout Blow in Savage Conflict

2,000 MARINES DEAD

BULLETIN
New York, March 6—The Tokyo radio declared today that American Marines on Iwo Jima "have launched a violent attack on Japanese lines and the fighting has reached a decisive stage." The broadcast was recorded by BBC, the BLUE network said.

By VERN HAUGLAND
U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Guam, March 6—(P)—The clincher blow in the savage 16-day old battle for Iwo Jima, where more than 2,000 Marines have died while killing more than 12,000 Japanese, was poised today—grown in power by supplies pouring ashore on the east and west coasts.

There were no appreciable changes in the lines yesterday as the Leathernecks, holding more than two-thirds of the eight square mile island, built up their positions for a grand scale assault on the rocky defense-studded north end.

In Washington yesterday, Navy Secretary Forrestal disclosed on his return from a visit to Iwo that 2,050 Marines have been killed, adding the loss was not out of proportion to the importance of taking the island. It is needed to put American fighter planes and Liberator bombers within range of Japan.

Forrestal gave no figures for wounded and missing. The last official figures supplied by Adm. Chester W. Nimitz covered casualties for the first three days. The figures included 644 killed, 4,168 wounded and 560 missing, although some of the missing since have been located.

Both Forrestal and Nimitz have given the incomplete count of Japanese dead found inside American lines at more than 12,500. Other enemy dead are known to be buried under smashed pillboxes. Still others are behind the Japanese lines, a decaying area which has been shelled by Fifth Fleet warships, pounded by Marine artillery, and bombed by planes.

Senate Lauds Appointment Of RFC Head

Washington, March 6—(P)—President Roosevelt's nomination of Fred M. Vinson as Federal Reserve Administrator was approved unanimously today by the senate banking committee.

The committee acted without hearings. Chairman Wagner (D-NY) said the nomination was approved "enthusiastically."

While the administration heard gratefully the praises for President Roosevelt's latest nomination, it felt only pangs on another front where Aubrey Williams' appointment as Rural Electrification Administrator faced possible rejection.

Vinson's designation to take over Jesse Jones' old $40,000,000,000 RFC and Allied lending agencies struck such a responsive chord the banking committee may rush it to the senate for confirmation without formal hearings.

Speculation turned on whether Chester Bowles might move up into Vinson's old post as economic stabilizer, and who would succeed Bowles as OPA administrator if he does.

There was some talk on Capitol Hill also that Mr. Roosevelt might call on Gov. Robert Kerr of Oklahoma, the 1944 Democratic convention keynote, to take either the stabilization or OPA posts. Kerr's term has nearly two more years to run, however, and friends doubt he would be interested.

Strike On London Docks Is Serious

London, March 6—(P)—A strike of London dock workers which began six days ago assumed more serious proportions today as a port official announced that approximately 10,000 men are idle. Seven thousand had been reported out up to yesterday.

Union representatives meeting over the weekend had urged the men to go back to work today, but the port official declared: "There is no prospect of the men coming in today."

To meet the situation the government last night assigned hundreds of additional soldiers to the task of moving cargoes, bringing to 3,000 the number so engaged.

YOUTH SENTENCED IN FATAL SHOOTING

Pittsburgh, March 6—(P)—Wenzel R. Keller, 15, of Tarentum, today faced an indefinite term at White Hill Reformatory, Camp Hill, after pleading guilty yesterday to the fatal shooting of Walter F. Kinder, 25, during a hunting trip in Frasier township last November.

Judge Frank T. Patterson, fixing the degree at voluntary manslaughter, said "there isn't any question that there was a sudden surge of sudden temper," adding that the youth would not have committed the act 10 seconds before or 10 seconds after.

To Honor Founder In Abbreviating State

Harrisburg, March 6—(P)—The correct way to abbreviate Pennsylvania will be Penn. If the state legislature approves a bill offered by Rep. Joseph A. Dague (R-Clearfield). The measure points out "the name of the founder of this commonwealth lends itself appropriately as an abbreviation for Pennsylvania and its use will perpetuate the memory of this tolerant advocate of the dignity of man."

100,000 Japs Destroyed On Luzon Island

By JAMES HUTCHESON
Manila, March 6—(P)—Destruction of six of the 10 Japanese divisions on Luzon island was announced today by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who said the remaining enemy troops, effectively bottled up in the mountains, were under continuous attack and "their position is critical."

Six Japanese divisions could number close to 100,000 men. More than 125,000 Japanese have been killed on bloody Leyte island, south of Luzon, making a total for these two islands alone of 225,000 dead Japanese troops, including some of the empire's best.

Mac Arthur, reporting gains on all Luzon fronts and effective airstrikes against Formosa and China coast shipping, said that on Luzon "the equivalent of six divisions, with supporting elements, have been destroyed, together with the main supply routes."

Twenty-fifth Division Yanks pushing into the Caraballo Pass have won more of the Balet Pass road leading to the Cagayan valley of northern Luzon, while the 35th and 43rd divisions near the west coast drove through the Zamboanga mountains in an enveloping move against enemy positions.

Northeast of Manila the Sixth Infantry and First Cavalry Divisions were slowly overcoming strong defense positions along the Antipolo-Wawa line on the Marikina watershed.

American bombers were active on all fronts. The battle for Stettin seemed virtually under way, although Zhukov's hardest blows at the moment apparently were directed toward Gdansk and Cammin, on the east main road and railway to the southeast east of the Oder.

FEW RETURNING VETS APPLY FOR BENEFITS

Harrisburg, March 6—(P)—Comparatively few returning veterans have applied for unemployment benefits under the GI bill, and many of these have refused referral to jobs, reports State Director Florian J. Boland of the War Manpower Commission.

After State Secretary William H. Chesnut of labor and industry said the WMC had failed to place 7,136 ex-servicemen in jobs in five months, Boland declared in a statement.

"Despite exclusion of veterans from manpower controls, officials of the U. S. Employment Service, throughout Pennsylvania are placing nearly 65 per cent of all Pennsylvania ex-servicemen in jobs."

SUICIDE USES GAS

Erie, March 6—(P)—Miss Jennie Stenstrom, 40, killed herself by sitting before a cooking range in the kitchen of her home and putting a blanket over her head after turning on the gas, Coroner W. W. Wood reported today. Wood said a neighbor discovered the body this morning.

Ninth Son Flunks Induction Exams

Lehigh, March 6—(P)—The ninth son of Mrs. Russell McFarland today said he "flunked" a Selective Service physical examination in Wilkes-Barre, last weekend.

"I don't know why," said 18-year-old Marcus K. Smith. He said a navy physician told him he had not passed, but that he was not to tell anyone until "Monday or Tuesday."

Lehigh Selective Service officials said under the law they are not allowed to reveal the reasons for rejection.

His 49-year-old mother, who has eight sons serving in the Armed Forces, said she was awaiting official classification. She and several Lehigh residents sent a telegram to President Roosevelt requesting special consideration for Marcus.

Another son, Clinton, was reported missing in action, and last week Mrs. McFarland heard that a third son, Melvin, has been injured.

SOVIET UNITS FIGHTING AT ODER RIVER

German Command Says Zhukov's Troops Wheeling Westward on Forty-Mile Front

KNOCKOUT BLOW NEAR

By RICHARD KASSISCHKE
London, March 6—(P)—Russian troops closing on Stettin have reached the Oder near Greifenhagen, 11 miles south of the port, a Moscow dispatch said today. The Germans declared the Soviets had thrust to within 13 miles of Stettin and 35 miles of the U-boat base of Swinemunde.

Red army artillery was shelling Stettin, the port of Berlin at the Oder's mouth.

The river divides into two main channels at Greifenhagen. The German high command said Marshal Gregory Zhukov's First White Russian army was wheeling westward on a 40-mile front from Stargard to Greifenberg, the latter town 14 miles from the Baltic coast and 17 northeast of captured Naugard.

It said a Zhukov spearhead had been stopped northeast of Gollnow at a point 13 miles from Stettin bay. Gollnow is northwest of Stargard and southwest of Naugard, both captured yesterday.

The Berlin radio asserted Zhukov had massed five infantry and two tank armies on the central sector for a push westward on Berlin.

Moscow dispatches said Zhukov's First White Russian army was advancing steadily beyond Stargard, 19 miles east of Stettin, and Naugard, 22 miles north of Stargard, and tightening his flank on the Baltic coast in preparation for a new push on Berlin.

As Zhukov thus got set for a knockout blow against Stettin, capture of which would be a strategic prize, Marshal K. K. Rokossovsky's Second White Russian army to the northeast slashed deeper into the coastal strip of Pomerania between Danzig and Koelzin.

The battle for Stettin seemed virtually under way, although Zhukov's hardest blows at the moment apparently were directed toward Gdansk and Cammin, on the east main road and railway to the southeast east of the Oder.

Operators To Reject Lewis Fund Proposal

Washington, March 6—(P)—Bituminous coal operators were ready today with a reply to John L. Lewis's demand for a 10-cent-a-ton royalty to provide a "rainy day" fund for his miners.

Best guesses after the operators adjourned a caucus last night was that their answer will be a flat "no."

Presumably it will be given over representatives when closed-door negotiations on a contract to replace the one expiring March 31 are resumed. They began yesterday, apparently without a decision or any of Lewis's 18 demands.

Last night's operator conference reportedly was called to dispose of the royalty issue, which the miners say would involve payments up to $30,000,000 a year in to a union fund over which the operators would have no control.

FORMER SENATOR DIES

Phillipsburg, March 6—(P)—Funeral services will be held tomorrow for former State Senator Harry B. Scott, 66, who died Sunday following several years' illness. He served as president pro tempore of the senate from May, 1933 to January, 1935. Elected to the senate in 1926, Scott served two terms in the house in 1914 and 1916.

EXTENDED FORECAST

Extended weather forecast for the period Wednesday, March 7, through Sunday, March 11:
Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia: Temperatures will average about normal; cold Wednesday with rising trend remainder of week; becoming colder by Sunday; moderate rain south portion and rain or snow north portion occurring about Thursday and again about Saturday or Sunday.

Warren School Pupils Show High Degree of Intelligence

In a brief report presented to school board last evening, Superintendent John G. Rossman showed that achievement tests given in local schools in the last week of the first semester revealed Warren school pupils up to the norms established for the nation, or slightly higher. Another portion of his report showed 169 11th and 12th grade pupils enrolled for correspondence courses ranging from aviation to trigonometry.

Also at last night's meeting of the board, Charles R. Beck was appointed assistant secretary to take over the work of Miss Emma Atkins while she is ill and Superintendent Rossman was instructed to write Miss Atkins a letter expressing the board's regret at her confinement to the hospital.

CAP Requires Space for New Equipment

Due to the patriotism and generosity of E. L. Stein, local merchant, Civil Air Patrol is now provided with quarters at 338 Pennsylvania avenue, west, where training aids and equipment, issued to the local squadron by the Army Air Forces, can be stored and used. The space has been fitted up as a classroom and laboratory and equipped with training aids used by the Army and Navy Air Forces in training of the flying personnel.

Until Mr. Stein made it possible for Civil Air Patrol to have space which could be utilized exclusively for the equipment which has now been procured, it was impossible for the local officers of Civil Air Patrol to have their requisitions for equipment honored. Under present circumstances, all Army Air Force equipment which is made available for Civil Air Patrol use can now be requisitioned and will be received for the use of the Civil Air Patrol Cadet training program. A great many training aids have already been received and more are on order. The advantages to the cadets of Warren cannot be over emphasized.

On Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. the general public is invited to come to the squadron headquarters and examine all training devices and equipment now set up. There will be competent instructors to demonstrate and explain all of the equipment. A navigational trainer used in teaching navigation by air by dead reckoning, will be in operation. A reflector trainer, used for aircraft identification and reckoning range, will also be in operation. A class in Morse code will be in session and other training aids in identification courses, navigation courses and other aviation subjects will be on view. The training program conducted for Civil Air Patrol Cadets will be discussed and parents of boys and girls from 15 to 18 years of age are especially invited to visit this display.

Struthers Wells Band Plans For Open Rehearsal Thursday

Another of the popular "open rehearsals" has been scheduled for the Struthers Wells band, to be held this coming Thursday, March 8, at 7:30 p. m. in the Struthers Wells band room. The band room is located on the third floor of the Struthers Wells Machine Shop building, at Chestnut street and Pennsylvania avenue, with entrance through the Personnel Department entry, just off Pennsylvania avenue, across from the Pennsylvania railroad station.

This, like previous open rehearsals, is open to anyone who plays or has played a band instrument, and who would like to "sit in" on a regular band rehearsal. All such visitors are welcome, regardless of what musical organization they may be affiliated with.

A regular rehearsal is held from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m., with some light refreshments served at the conclusion of the rehearsal to provide an opportunity to talk things over and "meet the gang".

It should be noted that the Struthers Wells band has been on a "co-ed" basis since last summer, since it seemed logical that the band should not exclude women at a time when women are playing so important a role in the work of the company which the band represents. Hence, any feminine musicians who may be interested in attending the open rehearsal can be assured both that they will be welcome, and that they will find enough girls there so that they need not feel out of place.

Possibly it is due to the presence of the feminine contingent that the Struthers Wells Band Room has recently been repainted, and that the heating provisions have been considerably improved. Additional chairs have been provided, too.

Big Game Tales To Be Given at Sports Meet

The Warren Field and Stream Club regular monthly meeting will be held Thursday, March 8th at 7:30 p. m. in the social rooms of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Bldg.

O. Carlyle Brock of Erie will speak on some of his most interesting experiences while hunting big game, and will show moving pictures of some of his best hunts.

Mr. Brock is one of the most outstanding big game hunters in the country—and an expert also with a movie camera. He spends much time in the far north of Canada each year in quest of his big game thrills and Club members each year in quest of his bers are assured of a special treat at this meeting.

Civic Group Hears Talk On Sylvania

The March meeting of the North Warren Civic Club was held last evening in the community house, with a good attendance. At the conclusion of the business session, Ray Ledebur introduced the guest speaker, Arthur Chapman, of the Warren Sylvania unit.

In his remarks Mr. Chapman stressed the work being done at the local Sylvania plant and had with him a fine display of articles being made. Much time was spent in inspection of these items and in questioning Mr. Chapman concerning them.

At the close of the evening, the social committee served refreshments to climax an interesting and enjoyable program.

RUSSELL

Russell, March 5—Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Young and son David, Mrs. Wendell Bauer of Lock Haven, Lowell Young of Emporium, Mr. and Mrs. David Young, Mrs. Kaie Seager, Mr. and Mrs. Elburn Briggs and daughter of Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Way and daughter of Akeley, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Briggs.

The Sunday school workers conference will be held at the church Tuesday evening at 7:30. All officers and teachers are requested to be present.

On Wednesday at two p. m. the W. S. C. S. meeting will be held at the church. The Children's Society will be special guests. Refreshments will be served.

The official board of the Methodist church will meet at 8:30 o'clock at the church Wednesday evening after Bible study.

TAKEN TO WORKHOUSE
Sheriff L. E. Linder left this morning for Blawnox where the Allegheny County Workhouse is located. He took John G. Strohm, arrested for the theft of an automobile here to serve a sentence of six months to one year. Strohm was arrested in Philadelphia by the FBI agents.

SPORTSMEN MEET
The Warren Field and Stream Club will hold its regular meeting Thursday night at 7:30 in the Veterans of Foreign Wars building, instead of the YMCA. The main speaker will be O. Carlyle Brock, of Erie, one of the leading big game hunters and amateur movie photographers in the country. Mr. Brock will show movies along with his hunting yarns.

AT CHAMBER OFFICE
Many queries recently as to where it would be possible to secure one of the booklets showing facts relative to the proposed Allegheny Reservoir leads to the announcement that the Chamber of Commerce has a supply on hand. These were sent to Warren by the Pittsburgh men urging the construction of the big dam and are free to all callers.

SAW MANY DEER
Marshall Mathis, one of the well known fliers of the city viewed from the air two herds of deer near the Coal Beds at Scandia while taking flights over that section. Miss Vida Knudgaard was a passenger on one trip and she and Mr. Mathis counted 72 deer all feeding. On another trip with Mr. Mathis over 90 deer were seen. All of the deer looked to be in good shape, according to Mr. Mathis and bore no signs of having passed through a hard winter. They were feeding on the grass on the top of the high hill.

PRODUCTION DECLINING
After 39 consecutive months in which Pennsylvania farm flocks produced more eggs than for the same month of the previous year, egg production has started to decline, the State Department of Agriculture reported today on completion of a survey by the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service. Establishment of new all-time monthly egg production records over a period of more than three years was stopped in January when production of 222 million eggs was 15 million or 6 per cent under that of January last year.

TRAIN SCHEDULE RESTORED
John Burgoyne, passenger agent at Erie for both the Pennsylvania Railroad and the New York Central, announced Saturday that the trains on the N. Y. C. which were annulled or discontinued when the heavy storm period developed early in the winter, have now been restored, effective as of yesterday, March 4th. No. 90, operating from Chicago to New York, passing Erie at 9:29 a. m., was restored this morning. Warren persons planning connections at Erie should get definite information on the schedules now available.

MAKES GOOD SHOWING
Warren county, according to the Guide Post, official organ of the Pennsylvania Cooperative Potato Growers Association stands sixth in the state in pecks of spuds packed and sold to February 1, 1945. The report shows that Warren county growers packed and sold in the Blue Label bags 213,090 pecks; Lehigh 422,697; Somerset 366,275; Lancaster 264,975; Chester 217,176 and then Warren gets in the picture. From all indications the Warren county crop last year broke all records. The grand total of peck packages turned out by the Association members amounted to 3,770,888.

TOAST WAS BURNED
Toast in the oven of a range at the Warren General Hospital this morning burned and set ablaze a small quantity of grease that had accumulated in the oven. Dense smoke rose and a fire alarm was turned in. As under Fire Department rules an alarm at the Hospital is always a general alarm every piece of apparatus in the city turned out with the exception of the Emergency truck. A short line of hose was laid but no water was used. The toast was removed and the grease burned itself out. Every fireman in the department was also in attendance at the alarm as it sounded just when the crews were changing. A still alarm last night was responded to when sparks were seen flying from the chimney of the Newell Printery building. There was no fire.

STATE HIGHWAY ZONING URGED TO PROTECT PENNSYLVANIA SCENERY

The PENNSYLVANIA ROAD-SIDE COUNCIL, Inc., believes there can be only one answer to the question as to whether Pennsylvania shall have clean, attractive, safe highways or a succession of sign-cluttered "ribbon-slums."

Approximately 1,000,000 residents of Pennsylvania are voicing their disapproval of existing highway conditions thru the cooperating agencies represented by the Roadside Council. They are demanding suitable regulatory legislation which would clean up existing highways and protect new ones. The Council is recommending State Highway Zoning which would confine billboards, roadside stands (with the exception of those selling farm products raised on the property) and other commercial establishments to "Service Districts," within the towns and villages. Fewer highways would be needed if traffic could move freely, without commercial distraction, accident rates could be reduced, property values maintained, and Pennsylvania's unusual rural scenery could be spared for a very valuable tourist business.

Mrs. Cyril G. Fox, Media, Pa., is President of the organization, with Dr. J. Horace McFarland, of Harrisburg, Mrs. Humbert B. Powell of Devon, and Mrs. J. B. Roessing of Pittsburgh, serving as Vice-Presidents. A Board of Directors, comprised of 25 leading citizens, and an Advisory Committee of 50 representative residents of Pennsylvania, govern the affairs of the Council. The Council's program is endorsed by about 50 organizations such as: Conservation Council of Pa., Keystone Automobile Club, Pa. Chapter American Society of Landscape Architects, Pa. Chapter of "Friends of the Land," Pa. Dept. of Forests & Waters, Pa. Div. Isaac Walton League of America, Pa. Farm Bureau Federation, Pa. Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs, Pa. Forestry Ass'n., Pa. ## Girl From Sugar Grove Is Inducted In Unique Manner

For the first time in history, a formal ceremony of the inducting of the oath to an enlistee in the Women's Army Corps took place in Corry on Saturday, at 11:00 a. m. in the Corry City Hall. Miss Ina Belle Phillips raised her right hand, repeated the words spoken by Lt. Estlin Potts, Recruiting Officer of the Erie WAC Recruiting District, and became a full fledged WAC. Miss Phillips passed her physical examination in Pittsburgh earlier this week. She is an employee of the Aero Supply Mfg. Co. in Corry, and did not want to take more time from her work in this production factory. So Lt. Potts made the trip to Corry, and the ceremony took place in the City Hall.

Miss Phillips is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton James Phillips, Route 1, Sugar Grove. She is a graduate of Sugar Grove Junior Vocational High School, and for more than two years she has been employed at Aero. Her duties have been those of inspector, filing clerk, typist and bookkeeper, from time to time. Brother Lincoln and sister Betty and Ruth live at the Sugar Grove residence.

A sister, Mrs. Maxwell Devereaux, resides at 322 East Smith street, Corry.

Cpl. Don L. Phillips, with the United States Marine Corps in the South Pacific is a brother-in-law.

She lists her hobbies as needle work and flying.

Ina will become a Blue Angel. She has selected the Medical Department as her branch of the service. Upon completion of a six weeks basic training period, she will be assigned to an enlisted technician school for six weeks, and then to an Army hospital for a month of on-the-job training. Upon successful completion of this course, she will receive a rating of Technician Fifth Grade, and will administer to the needs of wounded men returned from battlefields overseas.

Thousands of such women are needed urgently by the Medical Department. The necessity is immediate and vital. Consult your WAC recruiter.

The representatives from the Erie WAC Recruiting office will be in Warren on Tuesday. Miss Kathleen Simmons, CAP-WAC recruiter may be called any time at 741 or 3064, Warren.

WARTIME CHALICES

Chaplains with the U. S. armed forces use chalices made of gold-plate over an iron base. Copper and brass will not be used to manufacture articles of religious devotion until after the war.

Twine is being prepared by the Girl Scouts for distribution from house to house for tying paper for the March 21 collection. This is prepared in 8-foot lengths, and the Girl Scouts will provide about 4,000 of such units. Twine may also be secured at the Warren County Defense Office, 304 Warren Bank and Trust Building.

The benefit play at Sugar Grove on Friday, March 2, was an unqualified success. Allen H. Frank, salvage chairman for that community, with his helpers, added fresh laurels to the Sugar Grove salvage record by packing in a capacity audience of more than 200 people. More than six tons of paper were secured in lieu of admissions. The gratitude of Mr. Frank and W. T. Corbett, County Salvage Chairman, goes to everyone in the cast for their excellent work and to the people of Sugar Grove for their attendance and support. Sugar Grove school has a record of having collected more than 200 tons of salvage material.

H. L. Blair, county superintendent of schools, and J. G. Rossman, city superintendent, have sent out bulletins requesting the cooperation of all schools in the March 21 paper collection. Each school building participating will be given credit over the radio and in the newspapers. Past records of schools indicate that a large tonnage of paper will be collected through this agency.

W. T. Corbett received a very cordial letter from James A. Davidson, Chaplain, U. S. Army, from the army air base at Blumenthal Field, Wilmington, North Carolina. Chaplain Davidson, former pastor of the Warren Baptist church, expressed his gratitude to Mr. Corbett for helping purchase an accordion piano on a recent trip to Warren. He stated that the special services had been unable to find such an instrument in New York, but through the aid of Mrs. Olive Huff one was found locally. This instrument will be shuttled by plane between islands or other bases to provide entertainment where it would be impossible to transport a field organ. Warren county may congratulate itself on this example of public service.

Council Places Quarantine on Dogs For Next Six Months

With rabies prevalent in Chautauque county and other counties adjoining this county the Police Committee of the Town Council last night imposed a quarantine on all dogs for the next six months. The quarantine will halt all dogs from running at large and they will not be allowed on the streets unless accompanied by their owners, and then upon a leash. The ordinance was passed three readings and will become a law as soon as signed and posted. Burgess Steber, the police and members of council have been deluged with telephone calls relative to the dog situation during the past few weeks.

The regular meeting of the Town Council was a short one at which the finance committee presented its regular report and bills amounting to $12,134.78 were ordered paid. The report of the borough auditors was also received and ordered placed on file.

An ordinance relating to vacations and sick leaves and the method of reporting by heads of the various departments was passed. By the new method the borough secretary will be given more opportunity to compile payrolls.

It was suggested by the Street Committee that inasmuch as Street Commissioner E. T. Beck had carried on at home with all book paper work and became ill due to overwork during the heavy snow that he be paid for the full month. It was also suggested that the streets be washed with heavy streams of water following the melting of ice off the pavements.

Report was made that the sanitary sewer under the Liberty St. bridge across the mill pond was broken. The situation created is a bad one. Repairs will be made.

Police last month recovered $240 worth of stolen goods and found $155 worth of goods that had not been stolen. There were 35 arrests during the month. The parking meters from January 31 to February 28 produced revenue amounting to $339.98 as against $636.56 for the same period in 1944. Burgess Steber's report showed $60 in licenses paid.

A recess was taken during which the police committee and borough solicitor conferred relative to the physical condition of Patrolman Wally Otrid. Mr. Otrid fell while on duty and injured his right leg. The city is responsible for the affair and it was voted to pay Mr. Otrid and to have him consult a neuro-surgeon.

There were 19 fire calls with a loss of $1518 in January and 9 calls with a loss of $2200 in February.

The borough scales produced $16.85 during the past month.

Repairs to the Pennsylvania avenue bridge across the Coneywago creek are needed but will be attended to at a later time.

A letter was read from the Penelee stating no new street lights can be installed during the war period.

Repairing of playground equipment is about completed and seven trees were removed by the park employees last month.

A report showed the Airport had produced $21.83 last month.

Solicitor Blackman stated he had been handed a proposed plan for the erection of a police pension fund but suggested that it be studied by the chairman of the finance committee, president of the police committee, chairman of council and the borough solicitor.

Burgess Steber reminded Council the contract with the Penelee expires soon and that negotiations might well be started soon.

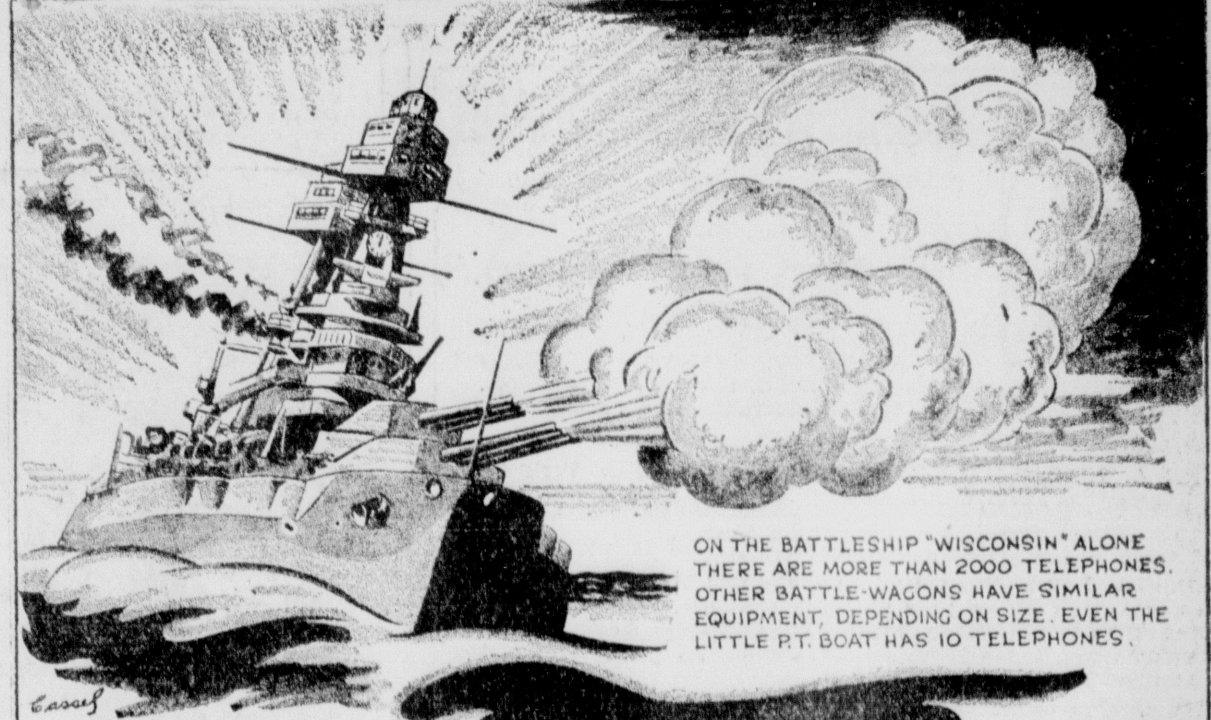

A letter was read from the Secretary of the Association of Boroughs relative to contacting the State Legislators on the securing of the gasoline tax by the municipalities of the state. It was reported that this had been done.

Following the regular meeting "The Big Sixteen" went into executive session relative to the recent election of a Second Captain in the Fire Department. At the election held in February Mr. Hampson, chairman of the Fire Committee was queried by Mr. Patchen as to whether there were "any more applications" when the name of Hartwell Willey was suggested. Mr. Hampson replied "No."

At the executive session a statement from James Tredick, who had served for a year as Lieutenant in the department stating that he had filed an application with Mr. Hampson and that it had been prepared for him with a duplicate copy. This was attached to his statement.

Mr. Hampson in a short speech stated that he had Mr. Tredick's application in his files and in a rather apologetic manner suggested that perhaps he had been wrong in the way the matter had been handled.

Council took no action.

Curfew Rules Received at WPC Office

Local War Manpower Commission officials today issued further regulations in connection with the "curfew" ruling.

"Restaurants serving food only and not serving liquor or beer or providing entertainment, are excluded from the curfew regulation."

"Restaurants which have been open on a 24-hour basis in the past and serve liquor or beer or provide entertainment, must cease serving beer and liquor and stop all entertainment at midnight. However, they may continue to serve food throughout the night."

"Restaurants which do not maintain a 24-hour service and serve liquor or beer or furnish entertainment, must close at midnight."

Mr. Stanczak, Area Director for the War Manpower Commission, pointed out that this does not mean any exception or variation had been made from the original edict, rather it is a clarification.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or capillaries which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up at night. Frequent or constant passing of water, especially at night, sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Just SCRAPS

Wednesday, March 21, is the next red-letter day on the spring salvage program. On that day a waste paper collection will be held in Warren borough, Glade and Pleasant townships. This will be a curb pickup. Collections will be held on the same day in Sheffield, Russell, Youngsville and Tidoute. Proceeds of this all-out pickup will go to the current Red Cross Drive. Paper is one of the most urgent items in the list of salvage needs at present, especially with the increasing tempo of the war in both the Atlantic and Pacific areas.

Twine is being prepared by the Girl Scouts for distribution from house to house for tying paper for the March 21 collection. #### WACS AT WAR

Right up at battlefield, close enough to be hit, Wacs are working side by side with combat soldiers.

On duty, the 7,000 women soldiers in the European theatre are doing nearly all of the Army's clerical and communications work. Less than 5% have had a regular day off in the past five months.

Off duty, they're what all soldiers want—American girl companions. They spend much time in hospitals reading to the wounded, writing their letters, or just chatting GI talk.

This was the report of Wac Staff Director Lt. Col. Anna Walker Wilson, back home with a request for 6,000 more Wacs for overseas, as printed in a current magazine.

"Nearly all Wacs have lived in tents without floors at some time, taken showers out of helmets," she said.

"Though they gripe about lack of time to themselves, too few letters, monotonous food, cold weather, we'd worry if they didn't," said the Colonel. "I don't think one out of a hundred would come home today if it meant leaving before the job is finished."

HITLERDOM ON WAY OUT

It would be difficult to find a better summary of Germany's desperate straits than is given by Dr. Rudolf Semmler, Nazi propagandist, who declares darkly that "never in our history have we been in such a grave situation. Never have we stood so totally alone."

The fresh successes of the Allies on both the western and eastern fronts places them in position for the final surge which will carry them into the heart of the Reich. In the west we are up against the last great natural barrier—the Rhine itself. In the east the powerful Russian thrust almost to the gates of Berlin's port of Stettin safeguards the Red northern flank and paves the way for the offensive to end all offensives.

Hitlerdom is about to collect the full wages of sin—and Dr. Semmler shows that he knows full well what it is.

In placing a quarantine on dogs council has taken a safe and precautionary measure. Many cases of rabies have been reported across the state line between Sugar Grove and Busti and fears have been expressed that the epidemic would spread to this county and probably into the borough.

If it is true that federal officials are going after the black market in cigarettes in the east, possibly the boys on the "home front" may get a chance to smoke something besides "run of the mine" stuff.

Actions of residents in cities in the Reich already overrun by the Allies plainly show how the Prussian arrogance has impregnated the German people. In defeat the yare cruel and disdainful of their conquerors.

LENTEN SERMONETTE

Rev. Dwight H. Jack, Pastor Youngville Methodist Church

"God is our refuge and strength, and a present help in times of trouble."—Psalm 46:1. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."—St. Matthew 11:28.

What a wonderful fact it is that we have a God to whom we can turn in troublesome times. Out of the present war have come many testimonies of men and women turning to God who, before, had found themselves in terrible overwhelming difficulties. Not one has testified that God failed them in their times of need, but rather have said, "God has heard our pleas and our faith in Him has been bountifully rewarded."

The Psalmist again and again was richly blessed as he turned to this divine refuge. Both in life and in death he had learned the secret of simple trust and obedience and could say even as he faced the shadows of death, "I will fear no evil, for thou (God) art with me."

Many years later another voice was heralded—calling people into obedience of God's holy will. He was Christ who came with a divine commission of abundant life. Also He is our refuge, for He said: "Come unto me all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." It is a personal promise—and He, too, has never failed. In these days of unrest may our turning to Him be of such a nature that we will find rest and peace for our souls. No one need be adrift on a raft for weeks before we turn to God for help, but wherever we are, in whatever capacity we serve—His hand is outstretched, beckoning us to come. He assures us strength and comfort for all that lies ahead. Without Him our strength is certain to fail.

"O, love that wilt not let me go,
I rest my weary soul in thee;
I give thee back the life I owe
That in thine ocean depths it flow
May richer, fuller be."
—George Matheson.

YESTERDAY: The redhead rides into the hills, mad at Joan for selling out, and to think things out. Reaching a summit, he notices distress signals rising from the Double O and hotfoot it to the spread.

Chapter 25

O'SHANE's lathered pony clattered into the Double O yard. Tossing his reins over the pony's head, the redhead peeled out of leather and made a beeline for the house. He kicked loudly upon the closed door. Not a sound came from within. Throwing open the door, he quickly stepped inside. . . and recoiled at the scene of confusion that met his eyes.

He whirled at the sound of pattering feet, his hand flying to his gun. The shriveled face of the old Chinaman appeared at a corner of a windowpane. Sighting O'Shane, a pleased grin spread over his yellow features.

"Fleeson velly bad man—takee Missie again," he squealed. "Which way did he ride?"

Not daring to shoot for fear of hitting Joan, O'Shane plodded on, heavy jaw grim set.

Again the hammer went back. The breed's fingers bit deep into the flesh of the half-swooning girl to hold her steady. . . the hammer snapped forward. Brace for the shock of a slug, O'Shane heard a faint click—the gun was empty!

With a snarl, Fleeson hurled the useless weapon at the squat, oncoming figure. The redhead ducked, and closed. His head hit the breed's middle with the force of a battering ram; like twin pistons, his clenched fists thudded into the breed's stomach. Grunting and gasping, Fleeson jerked up his right knee. It hit O'Shane's square jaw. He reeled back, senses swimming. O'Shane steadied himself by a supreme effort. Like a projectile he flung himself. Fleeson's long legs. The big man overbalanced. . . and went down. Before he could recover, the redhead wriggled free. . . the redhead's clubbed gun swung down upon his thick mat of lank, greasy hair. He slumped forward, limbs relaxed.

O'Shane straightened, ran to the breed's dead pony and returned with his rope. While Fleeson moaned a semi-consciousness, he lashed the kidnapper hand and foot.

Joan's cry of alarm jerked him round. "Look, O'Shane—the gang!"

I KEA a whirlwind, the knot of riders crashed through the sage and cactus and surrounded O'Shane, squat and rugged, gun held on the bound prisoner.

"Fleeson goes first!" he grated through dust-caked lips.

"To hell with that double-crossing scoundrel!" spat Johnson. The head-eyed gunners clustered around growled approval. "What's the trouble?" asked the perplexed redhead.

Johnson laughed, it sounded like a snort. "That coyote sold the cows. We had a fifty-fifty split coming. He hightailed with our cut."

Beyond a brief glance when they dismounted, the members of the gang had ignored Fleeson's bound figure. Suddenly his body gave a convulsive jerk.

"Hey!" he bellowed. "Get me out of this!"

Tight-lipped, the group of men silently gathered around his twisting, jerking form. Understanding flowed into O'Shane's eyes—the ground was alive with ants.

"What are you going to do with him?" demanded the redhead.

"Nothing!" returned Johnson laconically.

Six pairs of cold eyes met his unblinkingly. Johnson eased him towards his pony. "We're handling this, Mike. Get the gal out of here."

He caught the girl's pony and assisted her to the saddle. With Jules' agonized cries gradually diminishing, the pair pulled away. When his yelling finally died in the distance, O'Shane swung round in the saddle. Six men were slowly jogging southward.

chester out of the boot, he pulled his galloping pony down to a lope, cuddled the weapon to his shoulder and squeezed the trigger. The breed's pony went down in a flurry of dust. Grabbing the reins of Joan's pony, stretched at full gallop beside him, as his mount crashed, Fleeson sprawled headlong, his weight dragging the reins of his ting pony down upon its knees. Joan pitched forward over the animal's head. Fleeson sprang towards the girl, grasped her shoulder with his left hand and held her rigidly in front of him. . . crouched behind his human shield, he thumbed back the hammer of his .45 and watched O'Shane spill out of leather a dozen yards away.

The redhead jerked down the bandanna that muffled his mouth and nose. Fleeson gasped in amazement as he recognized his assailant. Fear glared out of his staring eyes. The hand which held the gun pointing over Joan's shoulder, cocked and the bullet destined for O'Shane whined into the sand.

O'Shane's lips quirked humorously. "Shoot!"

"We've lost the Turkey!"

"Lost the spread!" repeated the redhead incredulously.

"DAD wasn't a rich man," explained the girl. "He invested everything he had in this ranch. He borrowed money from the bank. His stock losses and Fleeson's last raid crippled him. He had pledged the ranch as security for his loans. The note is past due and the bank has given notice of foreclosure. So," she concluded ruefully, "the end of a dream. I can't afford a foreman, but I was never in greater need of your help and advice."

"Fired the crew?"

"No, I wanted to talk with you first."

"Well," said O'Shane, pacing the floor with creased forehead. "You ain't through yet. I reckon the land covers the bank loan. You should be running mebbe a thousand head, and that ain't chicken feed. We'll sell a couple hundred to raise ready cash and pay off the boys. Hold two good men to ride range. I gamble the bank ain't got a buyer and they'll rent us."

For the first time Viola really smiled. "I knew I could depend upon you—Bulldog," she said softly.

"Forget it!" replied O'Shane brusquely, to hide his embarrassment. "Flow's Joan Curran?"

"Back at the Double O. She has decided to sell."

"What have I—been bucking Si Wacker for?" demanded O'Shane explosively. "What's he been bushwhacking, raiding and creating hell for? The Double O. And now she goes and gives it to the sidewinder?"

"Sells, not gives," corrected Viola. "He'll pay thirty thousand dollars."

"It's worth double," groaned the redhead.

IMMENSELY, O'Shane wandered down to the corral, and said there had been a quarrel in La Bonita and this man Wacker had shot Dad through the heart. And that's not all."

Theatre-goers Anticipating Personal Appearance of Hope Summers Thurs.

Communities such as Warren, farther than ever from Broadway and the theatre centers through wartime travel restrictions, must rely on their newspapers, their radio programs and infrequent personal appearances for their glimpses of the latest in comedy and drama.

That such news is eagerly welcomed by the theatre-loving population is seen in the enthusiastic response given announcement that the Woman's Club will present Hope Summers in person in the club house on Thursday evening of this week.

Tickets for her program, which will begin at 8:30 in the club auditorium, are available at the club office and have been placed at a reasonable figure. The Entertainment Committee, in charge of sponsoring the attraction, has made arrangements, also for a half-price admission for those of student age.

Tickets are also available at any time during store hours at the lending library of the Metzger-Wright store and students may contact the dramatic teacher, Mrs. Phyllis Stanley.

A radio actress for the past four and one-half years, Hope Summers has been heard in "First Nighter," "Road of Life," "Guiding Light," and other network dramas originating in Chicago studios. She had her own repertory theatre in her home town of Evanston, Ill., from 1938 to 1942.

Beyond this she had done a unique service for the drama, for her play presentations—condensed versions of current hits and the enduring classics—have brought Broadway to many places where Broadway seldom comes and to countless other communities whose theatre-goers have been unable to go to Broadway.

Burma Missionary Is Guest Speaker For Local Meeting

The March meeting of the Inter-denominational Mission Study Group was held in Calvary Baptist church Friday afternoon, with 130 women present. The Grace Methodist and St. Paul's Lutheran churches cooperated in presenting an especially well prepared program, with Mrs. Arvid Danielson presiding.

A challenging devotional message was given by Mrs. Walter P. Mathyer, who used as her theme "Applied Christianity," based on the Scripture Exodus 14:13-15. A solo, "The Holy Hour" by Nevin, was sung by Miss Alfreda Laugerquist, accompanied by Mrs. Emil Jacobson.

The guest speaker was Mrs. Ola Hanson, of Pittsburgh, a former missionary to Burma, where she, with her husband, served of over half a century working with the Kachins. Mrs. Hanson spoke of their work among these primitive but friendly and gracious people. She gave much credit to the home churches, which has sent out missionaries. Dr. and Mrs. Hanson were the means of translating a language of signs with the hands to one of sound and words, later that to them the Bible in their own language.

Mrs. C. W. Edgett announced the last meeting of this group, to be held in Trinity Memorial Episcopal church April 6, with the North Warren Presbyterian and Emanuel and Evangelical Reformed churches cooperating.

Following the singing of a closing hymn, Rev. C. L. Wessman pronounced the benediction.

The following women acted as ushers: Mrs. Charles Canby, Mrs. L. W. Garber, Mrs. B. H. Armstrong and Mrs. B. H. Haglund. At the close of the program a fellowship hour was enjoyed in the church parlors with Mrs. W. C. Duff and Mrs. Nore Gustafson presiding at a prettily decorated table.

Members of the Pleasant Grange will meet Wednesday evening at seven o'clock. All members are asked to be present for an important announcement.

PLEASANT GRANGE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Members of Pleasant Grange had a birthday party Friday evening for eighteen members. The program was opened with a delightful tureen dinner, the committee being: Mr. and Mrs. Bert Owen, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kiser, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snaveley, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Wilcox and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Smith. Credit for the clever table decorations goes to Mrs. Kiser.

Dinner was followed by a Ladies Be Seated program under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Chapman and Glenn Kiser, master of the grange, acted as master of ceremonies. The servicemen were honored with a poem and those present were called upon to take part in the program. They were: Bob Johnson, Lee Hall and Walter Genberg. Jacob Schuler, whose birthday is this week, was made an honorable member. Estella Sailor was presented the Pleasant Township orchid for the largest family. William Gibson received a cigar for being married the longest. The evening was concluded with games, the winners receiving money for being funny. There was also round and square dancing.

Personal Paragraphs

Street Commissioner E. T. Beck has been out during the past week following a breakdown due to overwork during the time Warren streets were snowbound. Mr. Beck worked day and night and got the streets in fair condition before he was taken ill and put to bed by his physician. He is still not in the best of shape but is superintending the work under way about the city.

Mrs. L. A. Carlson, Warren-Kinzua, had the misfortune to fall and fracture her right wrist on Monday afternoon. X-rays were taken at the hospital and she was discharged after a splint had been applied.

About nine o'clock last evening Willard Littlefield, 14, of 11 Terrace street, was brought to Warren General Hospital, where X-rays revealed he had fractured his left clavicle when he fell while roller skating. He was discharged and returned to his home.

Mrs. Flora Jewell, aged North Warren resident who was badly burned at her home on Sunday morning, is still in a serious condition in Warren General Hospital. Aged nearly 81 years, she is suffering third degree burns and extreme shock.

Miss Dorothy Munksgard, student nurse at Bellevue Hospital in New York, was home over the weekend to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Munksgard, Crescent street. She will return to WCA Hospital in Jamestown the middle of May to complete her training period.

Supper Tonight One of Several PAK Activities

"Club 17" of the PAK will meet for dinner this evening at Trinity Memorial Episcopal church, with Nan Schwartz and Bob Swick as chairmen. The discussion topic, "Psychology in Leadership", will be presented by the Rev. Frances M. Rutledge, rector of Trinity church.

All PAK members will join in a party to be held at the YMCA from 7:30 until 11:00 o'clock on Saturday night of this week. "The Ghost Moves In" is to be featured for the PAK Theatre, with special events listed as "Spring Flowers and Beans" adding to the attractions. Swims, games and songs will have their part in the evening's program as arranged by Frances Seely and David Spies, chairmen.

Entry blanks for PAK Hobby-Talent Show to be held in First Presbyterian church on Friday, March 16th, are being mailed members this week. Final entry date is set at 9 p. m. Tuesday, March 13th. Birds, model airplanes, including gasoline models, valuable stamp collections and a wide variety of other entries will be known. Feature of the show will be a Bible exhibit being prepared by a special committee. The talent program will precede the Hobby Show, entrants for which will qualify at studio try-outs on Thursday evening, March 15th. Entries and committees will be announced next week.

Mrs. Fuellhart Is Elected Chairman Of Art Dept.

Mrs. W. C. Fuellhart was elected chairman of the Woman's Club Art Department at the unit's annual business meeting held at the club Monday afternoon. Other officers on the slate presented by Mrs. F. A. Beardsley for the nominating committee were Mrs. Leon Johnson, vice chairman, and Mrs. S. L. Myer, secretary.

Yesterday's meeting was conducted by Mrs. F. L. Plummer, with a number of important announcements. Mrs. J. H. Goldstein reminded members of the club rummage sale to be held March 23-24 and Mrs. J. W. A. Luce spoke of the dramatic entertainment to be presented by Hope Summers at the club on Thursday night of this week.

For the program, Mrs. R. L. Young chose as her subject "Audubon Art", giving a fine outline of his life and showing many slides in illustration.

To conclude, tea was served in the club parlors with Mrs. P. S. Tarbox as hostess, Miss Kate Winger and Mrs. Harold Warren presiding.

We Must Meet Our Fat Salvage Quota for March!

THE NATION'S fat-salvage goal for March is 26,550,000 lbs. To realize that tremendous amount, this community—and every other in the nation—must fill its quota. Won't you go all out to help put the drive over the top this month?

Remember! Your country is depending on those used fats to help make medicines, bullets, synthetic rubber, soaps for military and civilian use, and hundreds of other essentials.

Check your own savings by this check list. Maybe you've been overlooking some of these sources.

Approved by OPA and WFA.
Paid for by industry.

HOW TO GET EXTRA RED POINTS!

1. SAVE all bits of fat you trim from meat, and fat scraps left on plates. Keep them in a small bowl and, once a week, melt them down.
2. SCRAPE pans before washing them. No amount is too small to be of use...even a tablespoon helps!
3. SKIM stews, soups, and gravies while they cook. Afterwards, chill them and scoop off the fat.
4. SAVE water in which you cook hot dogs, sausages, and ham. Chill, and scoop off the fat.
5. KEEP the can (any tin can will do) on the back of the stove where it's handy. When full, take to your butcher. Get 2 red points and 4¢ for every pound. Start today!

Dragons Invade Farrell For Sharpville Engagemen

Make 1st Playoff Appearance Against Blue Devils; Battle Erie If Victorious Tonight

The team that will face Erie Tech's Centaurs Friday night in the Erie East High School gymnasium will be decided tonight when Joseph A. Massa and his cohorts make their first playoff appearance at 8:00 p. m. on the Farrell hardwood against Sharpville's Blue Devils. Having twice collected the Section Two championship in their two years of District Ten action, the Blue and White cagers are exceptionally anxious to better the mark set last year by the Kellen crew and further their advance in the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association playoffs.

Both teams will have advantage in this evening's inter-section battle. The Warren Dragons have a definite height advantage, the Blue Devils' tallest man being six feet, while Joe Massa boasts three over the six foot class. Towering Jack Eaton, Al Babcock, and Ray Reed all stand in the upper range. Warren's opponent has had the opportunity to play on the big Farrell court earlier this year, whereas the local combine will be newcomers to the arena, with the exception of Joe Scallise and George Lucia. The remaining members of the squad have never been on the court.

Warren's record this season speaks for itself. The Blue and White schoolboys have annexed a total of 15 wins, receiving but six losses, two each from Bradford and Jamestown, and one each from Titusville and Oil City. The Jamestown defeat has been well avenged, and the boys may have a chance to avenge the Bradford beating, providing they can overcome both Sharpville and Erie Tech.

The Dragon cagers left this morning for their engagement to night. 18 men, including players, coaches and managers, made the trip, and the players will have plenty of rest before appearing on the floor at 8.

Mentor Massa plans to start his usual first five. Joe Scallise and Al Babcock will be the two forward posts, with Jack Eaton holding forth at the center position, and George Lucia and Tom Juliano at guards. The coach must be given a great amount of credit for

Dragon Crew Cops Ind. and Team Scoring

Warren high school's Dragons not only captured their second straight Section Two basketball title this season but also topped all the league's scoring honors.

Warren finished with 302 points to shade Oil City offensively by four points, and permitted the opposition 253 points, the best defensive mark. Joe Scallise wound up with 108 points to take individual scoring laurels.

Behind the Lines

Rumor has it that William H. (Bill) Anderson, title-winning Lower Merion High School basketball coach, has resigned his post at the small town school to return to his Alma Mater, Lafayette, to become basketball mentor, director of athletics, and supervisor of physical education there. The cagy Anderson has denied all rumors but has admitted having had several conferences with Lafayette officials. Anderson, whose Lower Merion teams have won four Pennsylvania state titles, coached Lafayette teams eight years before going to Merion in 1927. He became Lafayette's court mentor while a junior at the college.

Fritz Nagy, of Akron (Ohio) College, went on a 75-point scoring rampage last week against Westcott and Westminster (Pa.) to oust Vince Hanson, of Washington State, from the first place in the National Collegiate individual high scoring basketball race. Nagy, who dumped in 96 points in his last three games, now has a total of 547 points in 23 games on 215 field goals and 117 free throws, while Hanson is in second place on 217 double-doubles and 100 singletons in 34 games. Hanson is likely to take over again, however, as he has two and possibly three games left to play against Oregon and Nagy's regular season is over.

Nothing like a good fight once in a while to stir things up. So think many members of various organizations about the state. Among these are the Warren Field and Stream Club and the St. Marys Sportsmen's Association. And both have voted a distinctly audible "no" to the proposed merger of the state game and fish commissions. By making this stand, these sportsmen are in direct contrast to a recent statement made by Colin Reed, president of the Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs of Pennsylvania, who said the proposed merger was in direct line with what the whole body of sportsmen was thinking. Evidently he did not contact local organizations before making that statement, otherwise he may have changed his remarks to some extent. Hunters and fishermen in this section, for the most part, can

Eagles Drop Rocky Grove Battle, 53-20

The Youngsville Eagles, playing their first playoff battle last night on the Oil City Junior High court, lost a 53-20 decision to the Rocky Grove quint. The Eagles were decidedly off at the charity line, missing 13 out of 23 tries.

The Eagles made a poor showing in the first quarter, coming out on the trailing end of a 15-6 count, but the Jewellmen bounced back in the second stanza to hold the Grovers to 15 as they annexed 12. Welsh starred for the local quint, netting a total of 13 markers.

The Rocky Grove aggregation moved further ahead in the third quarter, dropping in 13 to the Eagles 7, to put the Grovers on the long end of a 43-25. The fourth quarter was the most outstanding, although the Grovers outscored the Youngsville quint, 10-5, and came out with a 53-30 victory. The Eagles displayed their finest knowledge late in the third stanza and all during the fourth period.

Petteroff and Douglas were the mainstays of the Rocky Grove crew, totaling 30 and 13 points, respectively.

Major League Baseball Clubs Open Spring Training Skeds

New York, March 6—(AP)—Spring training opens Wednesday for the first of the 16 major league baseball clubs but the manpower situation remains as indefinite as it was January 1.

Because congress has taken no definite action on proposed "work or else" legislation, War Mobilizer James Byrnes has been unable to give baseball's spokesmen any definite word on what to expect.

Meanwhile, the owners have gone ahead with plans, announced signing of contracts and drawn up schedules of exhibition games but still have their fingers crossed.

Washington breaks the ice Wednesday when the batterymen will report to Manager Ossie Bluege at College Park, Md. Owner Clark Griffith of the Senators has 24 of 36 men in the fold, most of any club.

Chicago's Cubs follow Thursday with their first drill at French Lick, Ind., where Manager Charley Grimm has been inspecting the grounds since Friday.

The New York Giants with six men on the dotted line and the Yankees with 16 both report Sunday, the Giants at Lakewood, N. J., and the Yanks at Atlantic City.

By Monday, March 19, all teams will be training.

Men and Women In the Service

Standing in Line May Mean Different Things, It Appears

Many friends will read with interest the following letter to the Times-Mirror from Lt. Fred J. Boyd, who is serving with the Navy in the Pacific theatre:

"I'm writing just a brief note from the Admiralty Islands—Southwest Pacific theatre—to let you know that the recent dearth of news in my 'old home town' has been a real thrill to see the article. There's a good bit of 'local pride' here regarding one's home town. Our new familiarity with the home front leads to a discussion of hunting and there's been a big difference of opinion on the relative merits of hunting grounds as regards deer. The little news item put northwestern Pennsylvania on top. No one else can claim they come floating into town.

The duty in this area is what the navy calls 'rugged.' Thanks to the 'home front', though, there has been an amazing transformation in the short time that I've been here. Supplies are continually pouring in—not only weapons, but articles that make our living conditions a little more pleasant. It's not too pleasant living a mere 80 miles from the equator in torrid temperatures. If you hear complaints about rationing, remind those persons that many of the boys are standing in line—not for pork chops, cigarettes or stockings, but for a drink of fresh water.

As Personnel Officer for a squadron in the Naval Air Transport Service, though, I can say that the spirit of the men and the pride they take in their achievements here more than offset the inconveniences and hardships. Even so, I must admit there are several things I'd like to have—and just to show I haven't forgotten Warren—I could 'go' for one of those 'hot dogs with everything' just across the street from the Times-Mirror office!

Best regards from 'down under',
Lt. Fred J. Boyd, USNR.

B-25 Engineer And Gunner in The Aleutians

Headquarters of Major General Davenport Johnson, 11th Air Force commanding general in the Aleutian Islands, announces that Cpl. John E. Sandstrom, 219 Grant street, has recently arrived in that theatre and has been assigned to combat duty as a B-25 engineer-gunner.

The medium bombardment squadron to which Cpl. Sandstrom has been assigned has distinguished itself many times in sea searches and patrol missions of the North Pacific. Members of this squadron have brought terror to surface craft and enemy shipping of all types in daring deck-level attacks of precision bombing and completely devastating strafing runs carried out in the face of great hazards in the home waters of the Japanese Empire.

Island targets of the Northern Kuriles have not been spared either by these intrepid men of the Eleventh Air Force who, flying land based planes from bases in the Western Aleutians, have flown thousands of miles over icy waters ferreting out the enemy and destroying him whenever the opportunity presented itself.

Cpl. Sandstrom, son of Mrs. Mary Anderson, and husband of Mrs. Frances H. Sandstrom, both of 219 Grant street, Warren, attended airplane mechanics school at Seymour-Johnson Field, N. C., gunnery school at Ft. Myers, Fla., and R. T. U. School at Greenville, S. C.

What To Do In Philippines

From the Philippines comes a self-explanatory tale of another Warren cousin who is doing his bit in the thick of things.

L. B. Strasbaugh, carpenter's mate second class, was one of a group of veteran SeaBees pontoon specialists who landed on Lingayen Gulf in the Philippines. Strasbaugh is a native of Sheffield.

After going ashore, they dug their slit trenches, lined them with blankets, and, regardless of enemy fire, quietly went to sleep.

Awakening the next morning, Strasbaugh and his mates picked up chunks of scrap metal which had landed in their foxholes during the night and quietly went about their business.

Word is received here from Camp Blanding, Fla., that Pvt. Morris H. Kintner, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Kintner, 12 Bauer street, has been promoted to the rank of corporal. Graduate of the Warren High School and formerly employed at Warner Bros. Columbia Theatre here, Cpl. Kintner entered service in 1944.

Mrs. Gussie Winsler, North South street, has received word from Michael Cebra, somewhere in England, that he has been promoted from Corporal to sergeant.

Mrs. Sigvard Anderson, of Lander, has received word from her husband, Cpl. Anderson, that he has arrived somewhere in Italy.

Cpl. Alfred Nelson, saluted with the Military Police at the prisoner of war camp at Fort McClellan, Ala., home on ten-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Nelson, of Lander, and his wife in Jamestown.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Munksgard, Crescent street, have received a letter from their son, T/4 Chester Munksgard, informing them that he is again back in the Philippines with his old outfit, after having been in New Hebrides.

Pvt. William J. Weidert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Weidert, 305 Beech street, has been transferred from Trux Field, Madison, Wis., to Camp Howze, Texas.

Again from the Pacific area comes word of how rapidly news travels, even in wartime. From the February 21st issue of the Tropical Tribune, Paul Rogers sends home a clipping which appeared in the Times-Mirror only a few weeks ago. This is the second 'spirit of the deer' story, the first having come last Friday from Fred Boyd, down in the Admiralty Islands.

News of Don Chiodo Come From England

Family and friends will read with interest the following communication just received from an 8th Air Force Liberator station somewhere in England:

Donald J. Chiodo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luigi Chiodo, 305 Laurel street, Warren, has been promoted from corporal to sergeant.

A gunner of a B-24 Liberator, Sergeant Chiodo has taken part in bombing missions to Magdeburg, Brunswick, and other war production centers of Germany. He is a member of the 448th Bomb Group, commanded by Col. Troy W. Crawford, of El Paso, Texas, which has completed more than 200 missions against enemy targets. A veteran group in Major General William E. Kepner's Second Air Division, it has participated in the Eighth Air Force's steady bombing of the principal targets in Europe—German oil industries, airplane factories, and the communication systems upon which her industry and army depend. Before D-Day, the targets included coast defenses, flying bomb sites, airfields and troop concentrations. The group has dropped over 12,000 tons of bombs and has flown more than 4,500 sorties against the enemy. The same planes which bomb enemy installations have also flown medical and food supplies to the people of France.

Sergeant Chiodo has been awarded the Air Medal, "for meritorious achievement in accomplishing with distinction aerial operational missions over enemy occupied Continental Europe. The courage, coolness, and skill displayed by him in the face of determined opposition materially aided in the successful completion of these dangerous missions. His actions reflect great credit upon himself and the Armed Forces of the United States."

A graduate of Warren High School, Sergeant Chiodo entered the service August 30, 1943. He received his wings at Ft. Myers, Florida.

OPA to Check Food Stores

Eleven hundred local war price and ration board volunteer price workers will begin a check this morning of every food store in western Pennsylvania, Alvin J. Williams, district director of the Office of Price Administration, Pittsburgh, announced last night.

The drive is being taken without formal general notice to the trade as in the past, and will cover 10,000 stores. Nor will the 20 items to be checked in each store be revealed as in the past, Williams said.

Special enforcement action will be taken by the district enforcement division, John A. Metz, Jr., his chief, announced. Where a merchant was found in violation in the last general price check of March, 1944, and is again in violation, injunctions will be sought in United States district court, he stated.

WAC EARNS MEDAL

Josephine Gigliotti, daughter of Mrs. Serafini Gigliotti, 28 Pine street, was recently awarded the Good Conduct Medal at Indian town Camp Military Reservation, T/5 Gigliotti, assigned as a personnel clerk at Indian town, enlisted in the Women's Army Corps in October, 1943, and was assigned to Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., for basic training.

DECORATION COMES

Mrs. Gertrude Gleason, 407 Fourth avenue, has received the Purple Heart awarded her son, Felix Bruce Gleason, killed in action over Czechoslovakia last August 24.

Dads-Lads Of St. Paul's In Annual Event

St. Paul's Dads and Lads met Friday evening for their 25th annual get-together, probably the first time in the whole 25 years that the event has been held during the Lenten season. Because of present tragic world conditions, in the principal message of the evening, challenged every man "to perform his God-given task of having a part in the spiritual up-building of church and country which demands the love of every individual for one of his fellow men—regardless of color, creed or nationality—a program that fits in beautifully with the efforts of our humanity-loving president and his mankind-loving assistants."

James Peterson, a St. Paul's service man, told in detail of activities at a service center.

The inspiring "mission of music" was demonstrated in a solo beautifully sung by Earl Erickson, accompanied by Mrs. Emil Jacobson, and in a delightful trumpet duet played by Kenneth Lundahl and Dean Swanson.

R. Swanson was a very capable toastmaster, with J. A. Johnson in charge of devotions and the executive committee of the Brotherhood handling arrangements. A sincere thanks is due the women of St. Paul's who worked so diligently in planning a delicious dinner as accompaniment for the pleasant and profitable evening.

Sisters which met at her home on Bates street. There was a good attendance. Mrs. Nina Haight was reported convalescing at the Warren General hospital following an operation. Mrs. Clara Welsh presided at the business meeting. A donation was made to the service club. Hostess gifts were given. Mrs. Edna Haupt conducted a flower puzzle with Mrs. Welsh winner. A Noah Ark contest was enjoyed. Valentines were used in the grab bag. Mrs. Ida Henton and Mrs. May Downey poured for the luncheon. Each guest received a heart shaped sachet favor.

LOCALS

Mrs. Glen Sittler, Mrs. Lorraine Brooks, David Carlson, W. L. McCune were in attendance Sunday at the Townsend Club meeting in Warren with John Weir, National representative as the speaker.

All pupils of Youngsville school from the 7th grade through the 12th grades are invited to the Shamrock party to be held in the high school gymnasium March 17th. Admission is the wearing of the green. There will be a floor show, dancing and eats.

The Luther League is meeting March 8th in the Saron Lutheran church parlors. The meeting will take the form of a Lenten meditation with Mr. Anderson as the speaker.

Brokenstraw Creek is rather high. Parts of Island park are overgrown. The park buildings have suffered some damage to roofs because of the heavy snow.

Miss Barbara Engstrom and Miss Barbara Knapp have returned to State College following their spring vacation with their parents in Youngsville.

The Methodist men are meeting Thursday evening March 8th in the church parlors. The subject will be "Bibles" and on this Bible Night, the men are invited to bring their oldest Bible. A guest speaker will bring a message from the theme, "The Development of the Bible from the original writing to the present time."

Stray Leaves From Notebook Of Reporter About Town

Spring signs are seen on every hand. And Wes Templeton blows to beat the band. Of how his tulips grow toward the sky. And now are 'bout four inches high.

Wylie Corbett joins the springtime chime. Claims coruscus blooms big as a dime. And violets the tiny purple mites. Are trodden down by lads with kites.

And kids make drivers quake with fear. That a ball playing boy they'll sneer. And ducks float on streams now all serene. While robins sing and blue birds preen.

But humans? Boy they cough and sneeze. And full of colds all loudly wheeze. The weather man spring joys blight. By predictin' "Much colder to-night."

They do say as how the boys and girls when they adjourn from the curfew closed spots troop to sent on Palm Sunday evening March 25th. Mr. and Mrs. George Peterson and Mrs. J. A. Sagerdahl were recent Jamestown visitors.

Gurney Ball, who is particularly interested in the preservation of Wild Life says that the deer which have had a hard time finding enough food in the deep woods, now that the snow is going are seeking the lowlands for food. In support of this theory he reported that on a recent trip from Youngsville to Garland, he counted 49 deer.

Oscar Langer also is interested in preserving deer and recently donated to the local Fish and Game Club a quantity of potatoes to feed to the wild life.

a private home and continue the festivities. Just wait 'till Jimmy Byrnes finds that out . . . Operator 236 reports that Eddie Sullivan didn't take to a pipe and a chair and is still out rolling up the sidewalks at night . . . Sugar bushes in operation. Great days for sap. Didja ever have a mess of eggs boiled in sap? . . . Cars with nicely rounded fenders are an exception. Most of the fenders have a jom or two . . . Alden Stearns, of Sugar Grove Rd will be out with his spiles in his sugar bush today according to his plans. Of course if the weather man changes his mind it just isn't our fault. . . George Burdick, of Tidoute is sealing beaver pelts this week, a point the trappers must not overlook . . . Burdick also is one of the growing clan that just doesn't see where feeding of deer gets the results it is supposed to get. He sort of feels that nature will take care of the deer, weeding out the weaklings and keeping the healthy deer alive. . . The sunshine gives the Victory Gardeners the itch to be up and doing and most of 'em are busy scanning the seed catalogs. . .

Fritz Kiesbauer is almost buried under an avalanche of radios that are speechless from one cause or other. Fritz says everyone is anxious to have their radio as the Allies are moving so fast that the war might fold up and a lot of the boys wouldn't know it what with the curfew keeping them home nights. . . Did you see the Ford with its top down about town yesterday? Sure sign of spring or pneumonia, don't know which . . . Mail men lugging the new telephone directories around. Many changes noted in the new book . . . District deputy Hal Baker of the Elks is in receipt of a letter saying the National Convention has gone the way of other conventions and has been called off for the duration . . . If you plan to switch to a pipe better get busy. Dealers just can't get hold of any good pipes and stocks are down to rock bottom. . . Warren

National Forge planning some extensive improvements on Wilder Field for the coming summer. With its good water, fire places and tables it is an ideal place for picnics. Many installations were made last year. . . According to reports Chapeau Ball is dusting off his chapeau readying to fling it into the political ring. . . The dope is that Gurney will be a candidate for Register and Recorder. On this point he is silent . . . Benj. Mathis yesterday received a batch of turkey poulters that next Thanksgiving Day will bloom on Warren tables. They will be all breast if you can believe those guys down at State College who sponsored the streamline breed. . .

Elmer Wheeler, author of eight books on salesmanship, says that tradesmen who specialize in snappy comebacks when asked for war-scare items are slitting their own throats.

"When a customer comes in and says he would like a pack of cigarettes, don't snap 'so would I', he advised retail grocers. "And," he added, "when a customer wants a pound of butter, don't yell: 'Hey, Joe—c'mere and take a look at this guy who wants a pound of butter. He doesn't know there's a war on.'"

Mr. Wheeler warned that many customers will remember such things after the war.

Dragons rolling off to Farrell for game with Sharpshires tonight. The boys started early to get a chance to look over the Farrell gym which is just about the home court of the Sharpshires lads. . .

Another story hour attendance was set in the Warren public library on Friday afternoon. Nearly 300 children in the first, second and third grade group gathered in the children's room to hear Mr. Betty Archibald, community storyteller. This is the largest attendance for the younger group.

The stories were especially popular with the children. They included a very amusing one from the Russian, Turnips on the Rock, and The Ogre Who Plays Jack straws.

There has been an unusual large number of new children borrowers at the public library lately. Over twenty-five applications were asked for within a week's time. The juvenile department circulation desk for the older group story hour, which will be held on Thursday afternoon, March 8th, at 6 o'clock. Mrs. Archibald will tell two favorite stories at that time to boys and girls in the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades. Because of the large number attending these community story hours, it is necessary to require admission by ticket only.

The bird display, loaned by Mrs. Rutledge, is being held over for another week. The public library has made this arrangement because of the interest the display has aroused, and to enable the Thursday afternoon group to see it.
